Making History

It was the 43rd annual BIG GAME, with an estimated four thousand plus fans watching the close game played between the JETS and the HORNETS. Both teams came into the game fighting for a spot in the North Coast Section 2A Playoffs. The JETS came into the game as underdogs. Alameda was picked by the Alameda Journal as the victor over Encinal by one point. Being the first BIG GAME in history played under the lights, the two teams clashed for the island title. Playing in Encinal's backyard, the JETS showed their pride and kept the BIG GAME trophy for the second year in a row. Both teams gave it everything they had trying to become victorious. Through the cold and windy night, the JETS earned the bragging rights for the island, with the final score of JETS 22 and the cross-town rival HORNETS 20.

▲ As the games end, the score stands at Jets 22 and Hornets 20. Our Jets have won 7 games in the last 10 years.

▲ Cheerleaders Jordanna Burgo, Janie Lee, Althea Valrey, and Lolla Manibusan get juiced as they take the field for the half-time show.

Game

Despite the surrounding opposition, senior quarterback Terrence Coates trudges along for extra yardage.

Blue 42! Blue 42! Set, hike! Junior offensive lineman Jason Lewis sets his sights on his next victim.

Wondering where the ball is, J.V. Jets Dan Deslierres, Mike Lopez, Andre Talltree, and Dylan Collins scramble for the Encinal cause. The final score was Encinal 8, Alameda 0.

Look in the sky! It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's JETMAN! Jay Uppal shows his JET PRIDE as he soars through the field during half-time.

Senior defensive backs Reggie Smith and Ryan Garcia take down a stumbling Hornet attempting to run for extra yardage.

EHS Homecoming

Spirit Every Day Of The Week

Homecoming has become an unforgettable moment. Among high school events, Homecoming is one of the best. At this year's Homecoming, Encinal had a number of affairs like Spirit Week, Open Sales, games, class skits, class hallways, the Homecoming Game, and the dance. As in previous years, this one was truly remarkable.

One of the events was Spirit Week which was all about dress up days. On Monday it was Twin Day, Tuesday was Mix and Match Day, Wednesday was Pajama Day, Thursday was Crazy Hat Day, and Friday was Class Colors Day. Seeing people wear different things makes them look unique and shows that Encinal has astounding school spirit.

During lunch there were Open Sales and games. Clubs and classes sold different food, from Asian to American food. Music from Rap to R&B was also played. Various games were going on as well. Different classes competed against each other in the Cheeto Toss, Balloon Toss, Musical Chairs, and more. It was a lot of fun.

The best part of Homecoming was the last day. As you entered the main entrance, you'd see delightful decorated hallways. Different classes made it possible for this to happen. Some people from different classes spent their night decorating the hallways, which looked exciting. Class skits were very entertaining. Students from different classes were the actors and the actresses. Sophomore class came in first place, Seniors were second, Juniors had third, and the Freshmen came in last.

The Homecoming Dance turned out great. Many students came and enjoyed. They were even showing school video clips during the dance. The Homecoming King and Queen were Michael Gbologah and Marshayla Shaw. It was one enjoyable evening. The dance theme was "One in A Million".

The only bad part of Homecoming was the Homecoming Game. Encinal lost to the infamous St. Mary's 26-16, but Encinal didn't lose spirit and they still had a great Homecoming.

Downtown Julie Brown, a.k.a. Jerlina Love, introduces "hottie" Keanu Reeves in a clip from the movie Speed. The c/o 2000 took all this year with their award-winning theme HOLLYWOOD.

Freshman Kristina Strukey jams to the beat of the Beastie Boys during the Freshmen skit. Much props to the c/o 2001; they did a great job for this being their first year.

Junior Janie Lee says "HELLO" during the culture section of the Junior skit. Originality was the key to the c/o 1999 this year; they were a web site, WWW.EHS C/O 99.COM.

Seniors Louis Billetter and Megan Lawer are in a "Barbie World" as they entertain the crowd during their Senior skit. The c/o 1998 will leave E.H.S. this year, leaving their memories for classes to come.

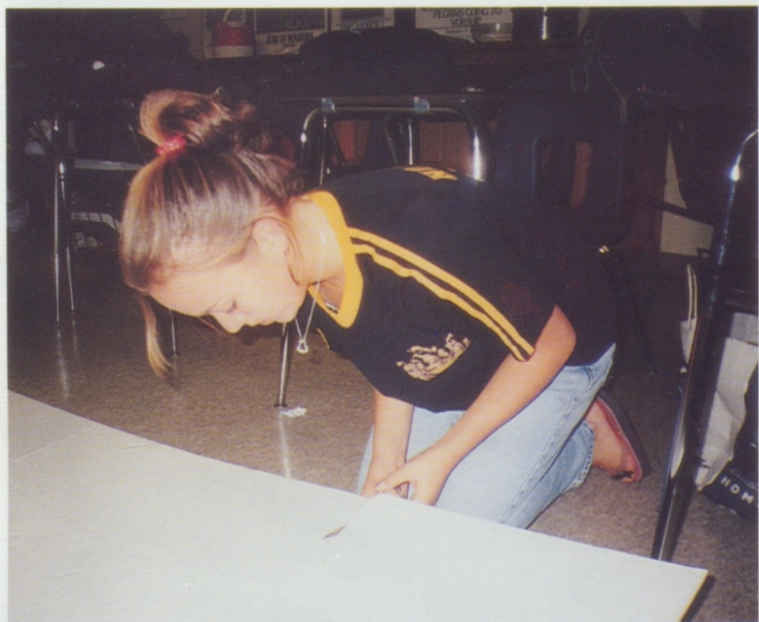

Senior Alan Duque, helps out his class during hallway decorations by putting together a checkered floor to give it that 70's disco look. The Seniors may not have won, but they will always remember the fun they had during their last Homecoming.

To wrap up our exciting Homecoming Week was the dance, which many people enjoyed and will remember. Carla Carreon gets her ticket to the Homecoming Dance, "One in a Million", ready to enjoy.

Allison Voss helps out her freshman class by making signs that were posted in their California hallway. The Freshmen really stuck together all through the night as they worked on their first Homecoming hallway.

Amy Barnes helps to make Hollywood Blvd. for her Sophomore hallway. The c/o '00 got together during the summer to prepare for Homecoming, which earned them a win that was well-deserved.

Messy! Members of the Junior class get their hands into it while decorating their hallway. The c/o '99 was very creative while designing the web pages throughout their hallway.

One of the reasons we have Homecoming is for our football team. Eric Wilson breaks through St. Mary's defense while carrying the ball for a great play by the Jets.

HOMECOMING

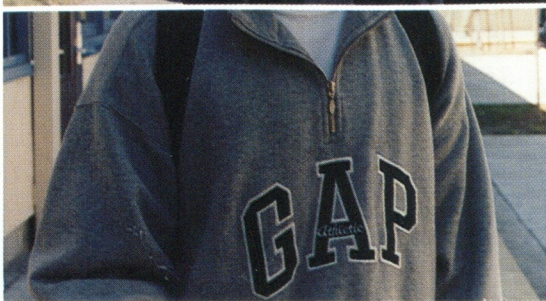

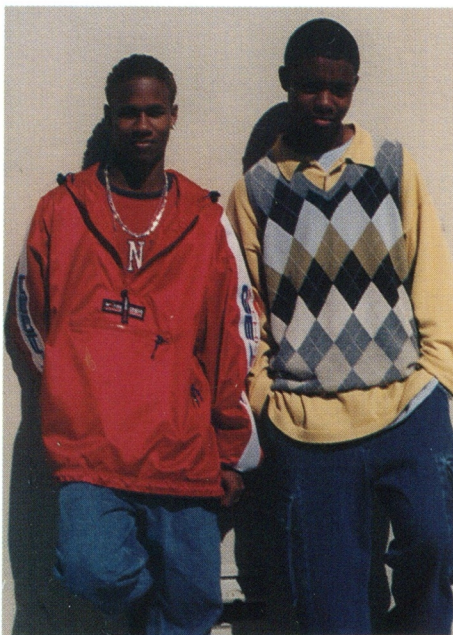

Fashion Files:

Fleece, Flares-n-Flava

Diversity in fashion is a big part of Encinal High School. Body art became very popular this year, with guys and girls sporting real tattoos, henna tattoos, and body piercings. East Coast style is still around with an assortment of army clothes with colors ranging from green to red. Cybertech and Lugz are new this year, also representing the East Coast flava. Brand names are also a hit. Gap, Old Navy, Timberland, Nautica, Tommy Hilfiger, Skechers, Nike, and Adidas can be seen all over campus. The preppie look is also in. Overalls, corduroy, and Khaki pants help students look casual, as do fleece and ski sweaters. Believe it or not, students are going with the grunge look as well. This category includes mohawks, spiky hair, dog collars, ripped and patched jeans and more unusual styles. Some students are flaunting the alternative look, like square-toe shoes, body glitter, white eye liner, flares, striped pants and skirts. Trends and fashion for Encinal also include cartoon characters, long hair, fisherman hats, and bright colored everything to match your fit. All these outrageous looks help to unify Encinal's students and create the unique style we have.

Hungry, Hungry Hip-Jets

Lunchtime Activities

It's a time for food, games, and going off campus. It's the best time in school. It's lunchtime.

At Encinal, there's always a lot going on during lunchtime. Students looking for lunch line up for a variety of foods in the cafeteria, one of the most popular being pepperoni pizza. There's also Open Sales Week, when clubs and other classes fundraise by selling plenty of food and drinks. There are delicious foods like chow mein, Frito boats, and barbecue. No matter what your culture or preference, no one ever needs to go hungry at Encinal.

If you're looking for something to do besides eat, join a club, pick up a ball, or get involved in a class or an event. There are club meetings during lunch, and most of them meet weekly. Sports like basketball are also played at the back of the school near the football field. The JROTC drill team is often back there, too, practicing their routines. Some students are working in the student store, making money for the marketing class and getting good grades. As you wander across campus you may run into a student/teacher softball game, a jumpin' beat, or a cardboard boat race. At Encinal, you just never know.

Top: Kacey Cotton serenades his strudel during Open Food Sales Week. Open Food Sales was one of the exciting events held during Homecoming week.

Middle below: Jack Chung and Jason Johnson converse about the delicious pizza that's available at lunchtime for only $1.50!!!

Carmen Johnson, Sula Symmons, Sadie Garder and Aracely Vega prepare for war at the Halloween dance. The dance was held during lunch for $1.00, unless you came in costume which made it free.

Nafeesah Bashir sacrifices all for the class of '99 during a class competition for Homecoming. Nafeesah tried to catch cheetos with her face, but was disqualified due to her partner's actions.

Melissa Fulton, Althea Valrey, Michelle Armstrong, Trennille Mims, Ebony Kirtton, Jamilla Nibbs and Lillian Byrd, hang out and enjoy a lot of sunshine with a little bite to eat.

Straight from the cave, Twila Villanueva struts her stuff as she grooves to the monster mash at the mini Halloween dance.

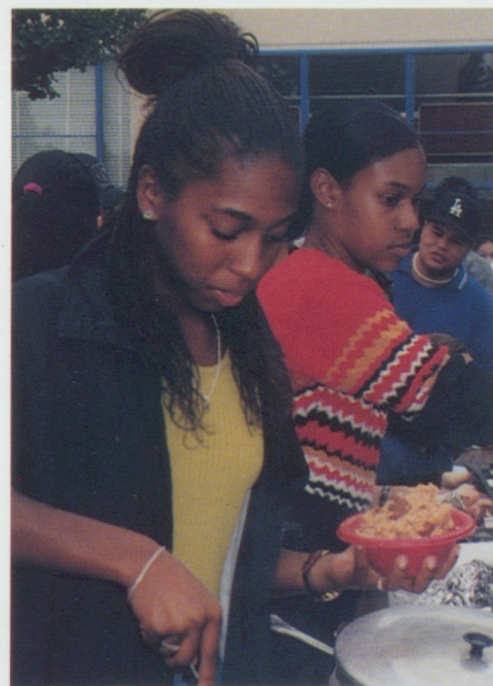

Smoothies for sale at lunchtime are a big hit with everyone. David Robinson takes a sip of his tasty strawberry smoothie, while others wait for theirs.

Burr ... Tereasa Chavez gets drenched while participating in a water balloon toss at lunchtime for spirit week.

Yum, that looks good! At open sales, Juanita Lyons & Kim Pearson help out the Encinal Voices of Gospel Choir by selling Marva Lyons' famous jambalaya.

Senior

Class Of

Last Flight... File # 98

In early September the school bells rang; time to go to class! It was very different from the years before, for the new senior class of 1998. Coming to high school for the last year was a concept hard to grasp.

The school year began as it usually always did; books, binders, homework and teachers. In early November the Homecoming festivities began. Including open sales, lunch time activities, hall decorations, and of course the homecoming game and dance. Homecoming skits didn't always come naturally to the class of '98. This year's skit was not the best, but definitely the most fun! A lot of people participated, which contributed to the fun.

Throughout the year there were various fund-raisers including our biggest one which was the senior Pasta Feed. It was held in September, and the money from that will be contributed toward our senior activities, such as prom, senior banquet and senior picnic.

Four years of high school finally paid off! It's time to move on with our lives. We've watched each other grow up, and now we have to watch each other separate. We will always hold on to the memories that we share with one another. Senior classes come and go, but the class of 1998 will forever be remembered by Encinal High School for it's diversity, unity and knowledge! FAREWELL C/O 1998!!!

ACADEMICS

English & History

James Dalipe, a sophomore, ponders over his classwork for Modern World History. James is in Mr. Rodriguez's honors history class.

Senior Imani Dixon concentrates on her government classwork.

Nick Henneman is listening closely to Mr. Evans' lecture. He is so into the lecture, he doesn't have to take any notes.

Junior Andrea Pearson is trying to get her thoughts together as she's writing an essay for English.

Jonny Canalin gets help from his classmate April Dillard. Jonny knows it's good to have friends nearby, especially in history!!

Marvic Paulo sleeps in Mr. Robinson's English class while his excited classmates watch "The Vikings."

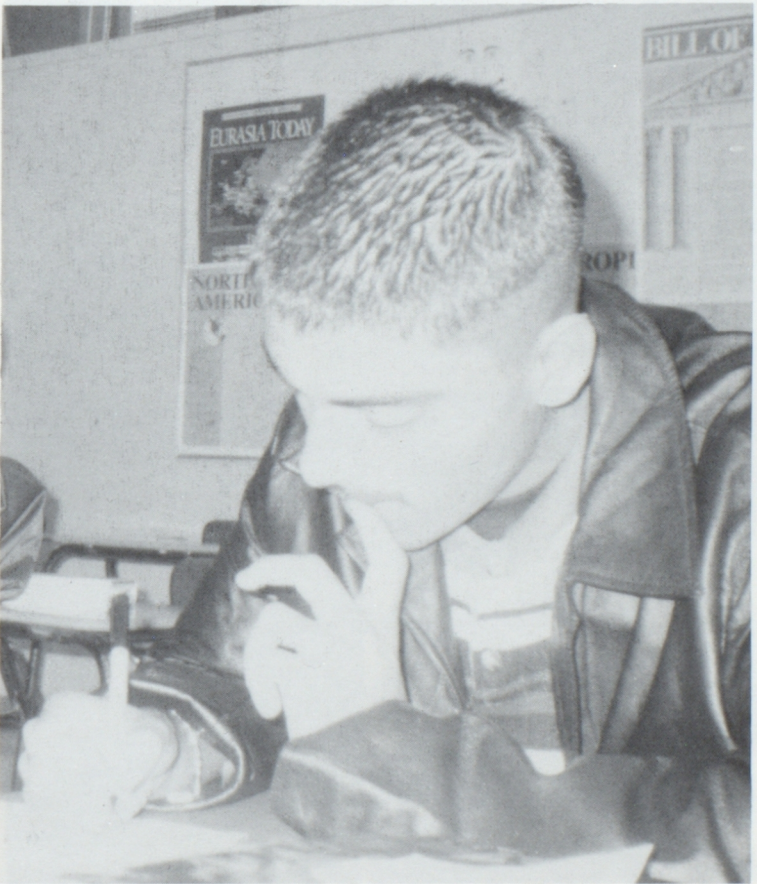

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“The foundation of every state is the education of its youth.”
-Diogenes

Margel Martorillas is daydreaming about "The Crucible," while Barbie Elasiague is hard at work on the group's poster in Ms. Aanestad's English class.

Senior Uyen Dang is happily stressing over the history essay Mr. Evans has just assigned.

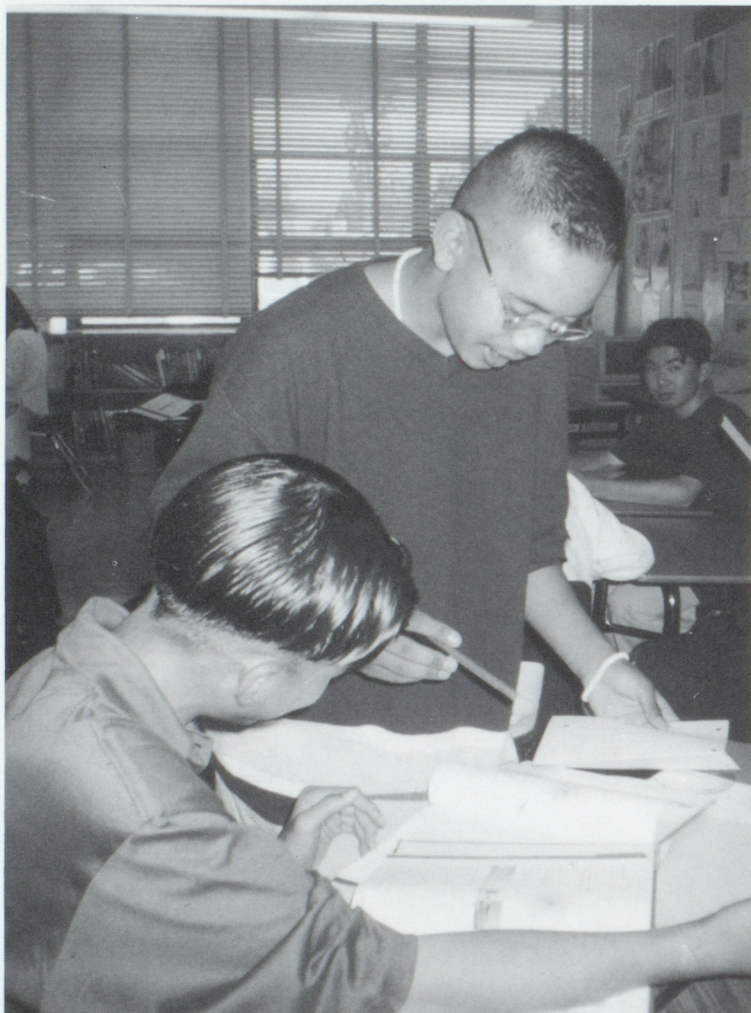

Thinking, thinking, and thinking. Senior Khalid Naweed is puzzled on this homework assignment.

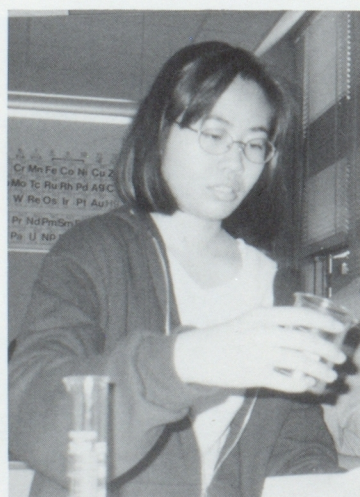

Math & Science

Say what? James Laqui tries to explain a problem to Mike Cruz in Ms. Fleming's algebra class.

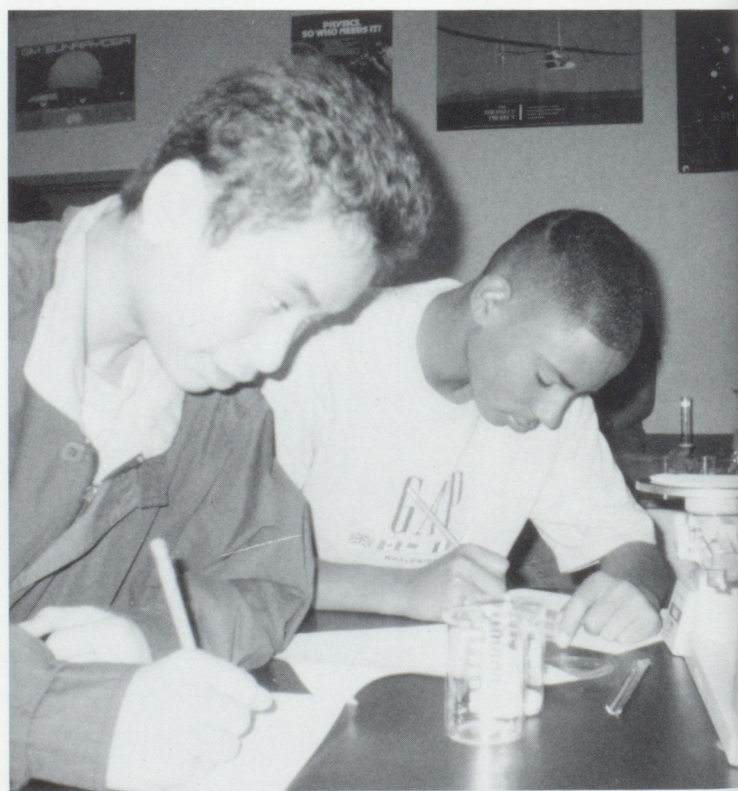

Cassandra Alonzo is trying to get her balance to weigh objects accurately. She is a junior this year.

Seana Onia concentrates hard on her math work. Seana is a new-comer this year.

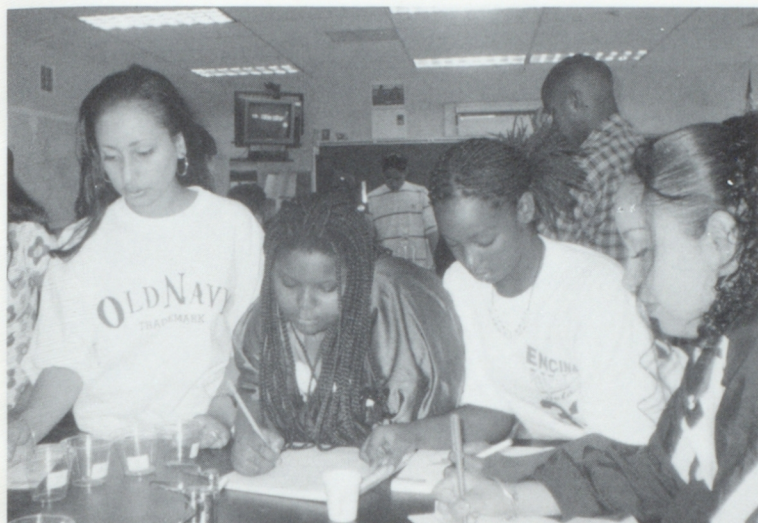

What if? Wow! Kimberly Yan is working on a lab in Mr. Nelson's chemistry class.

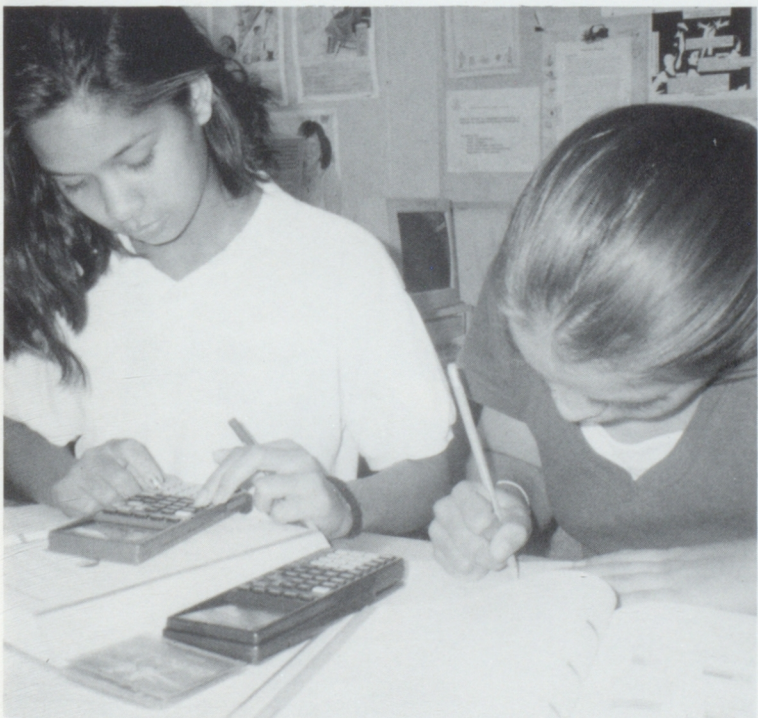

David Le and Jewel Love work on their mixture and separation lab in chemistry.

What' cha doin'? Monica Parkin, Jammita Mays, Patisa Fields, and Rossana Munoz record their observations in Ms. Walsh's science class.

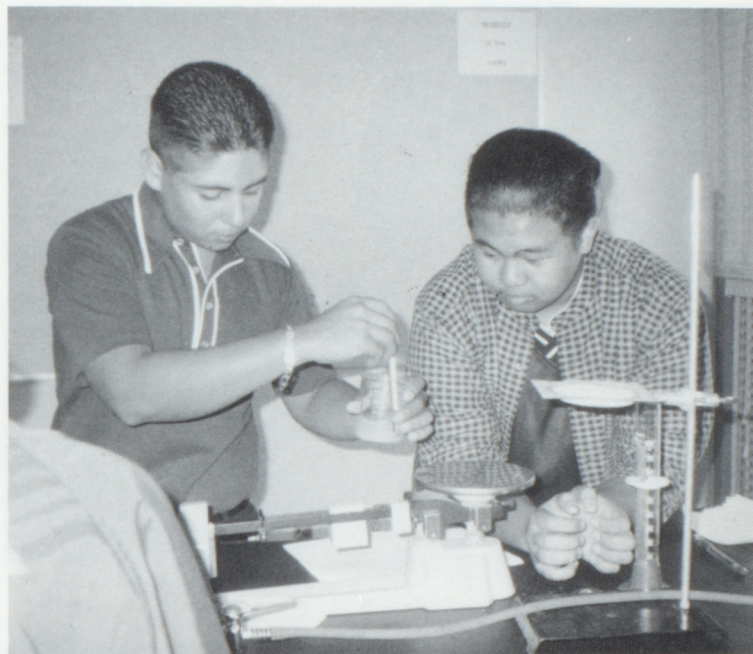

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“The human brain is the apparatus with which we think we think.”

Tlacaoel Alvarez and Kim Apuada get a kick out of science while stirring liquid.

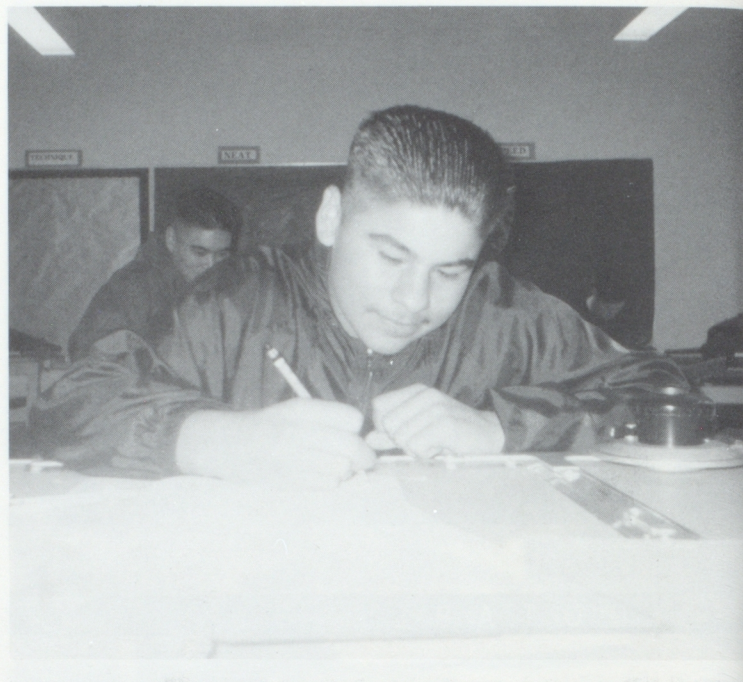

Jessica Wolford records her observations with Rehnema Anis in Mr. Mederos's class.

ROP & Job Training

Andrew Moyer helps out Ronny Miranda in Mr. Ford's drafting class. Both Andrew and Ronny are sophomores.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“If you want to go far in business, you’ll have to stay close to it.”-unknown

Zarlasht Tokhey and Noelle Bernhard discuss focus group surveys on paper charts for the Healthy Start Program. The Healthy Start Program met 3 times a week.

People line up to buy food at the school store. The store is a profitable project run by DECA.

Michael Hanson glances up from the drill in woodshop, where he's working on his name block.

Angelina Ford proudly shows off her finished wreath, which she has made in her floral class. Wreaths made by the students were on sale in Ms. Dea's class for $15-$20.

Concentrating on sanding a piece of wood, Andrew Jung makes sure he doesn't scratch himself. Class projects in woodshop included spice racks and cutting boards.

Adrian Torres pauses to think about his next move in drafting class. Drafting requires accuracy and precision on the students' part.

Art & Foreign Language

Hallard Jackson is silently working on his clay, while his friend Antonio Terragano is trying to absorb all the nutrients from the clay. These freshmen are having fun in ceramics.

Kyle Kingston smiles because he knows he has the right answers on his Spanish homework. Keep up the good work.

Senior Nick Allocola concentrates on getting his artwork picture perfect. Hey, he may be the next Michelangelo!

Kinte Brooks, a freshman in Mr. Rurk's ceramic class, slams the clay with all his might.

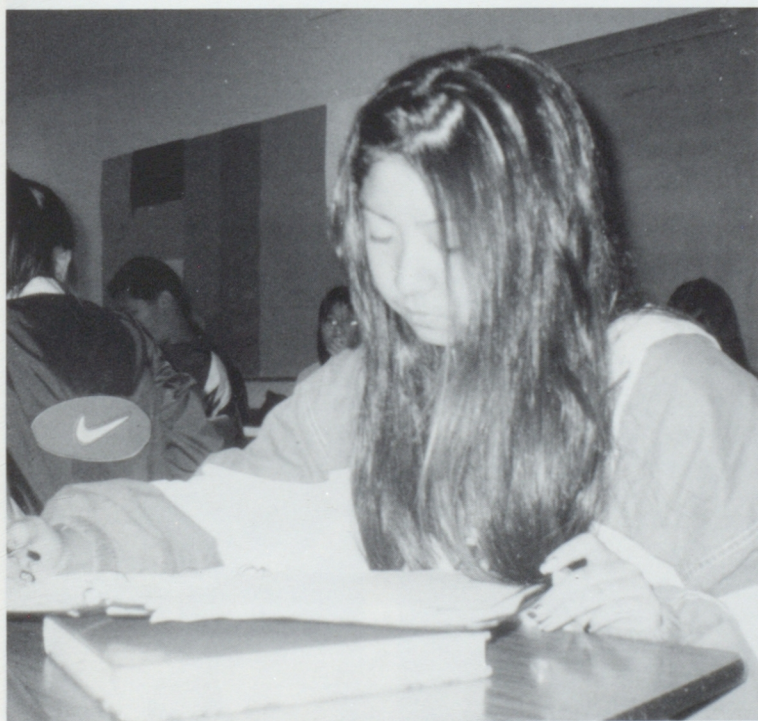

Vonya Shumate is checking to see that she has done her homework. Gotta get those good grades!

Senior Rahel Yohannes and Taj Stansberry are peacefully drawing trees in Mrs. Stern's art class.

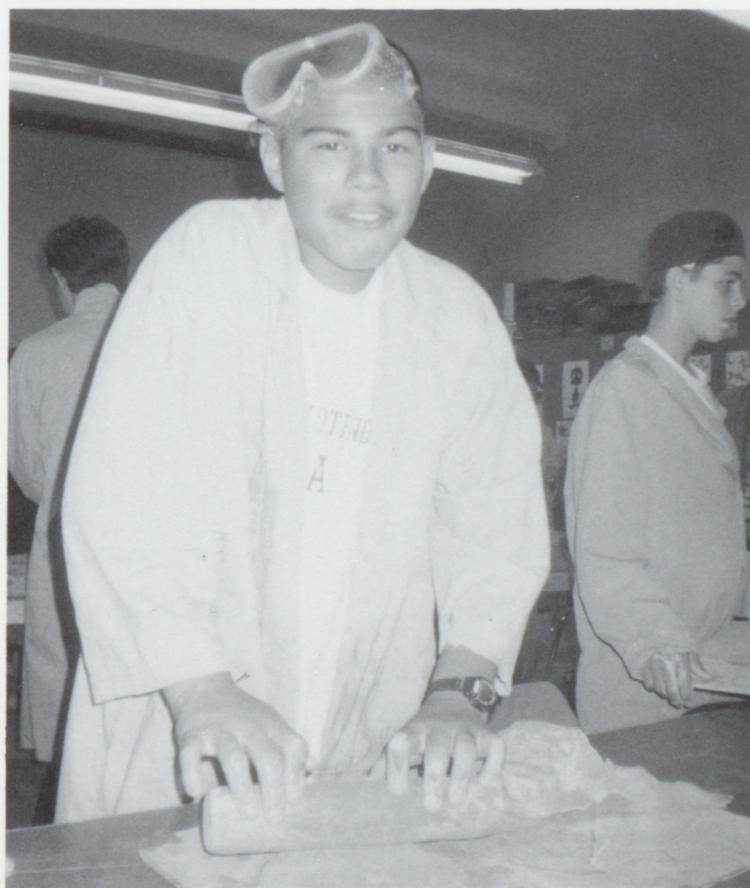

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“Art is a lie that makes us realize the truth.”
-Pablo Picasso

Rose Lee is so into her Spanish work she doesn't even bother to look up for the camera.

Jerrett Canfield works vigorously to finish his Spanish classwork. He knows he has homework to do as soon as this is done.

Computers & Marketing

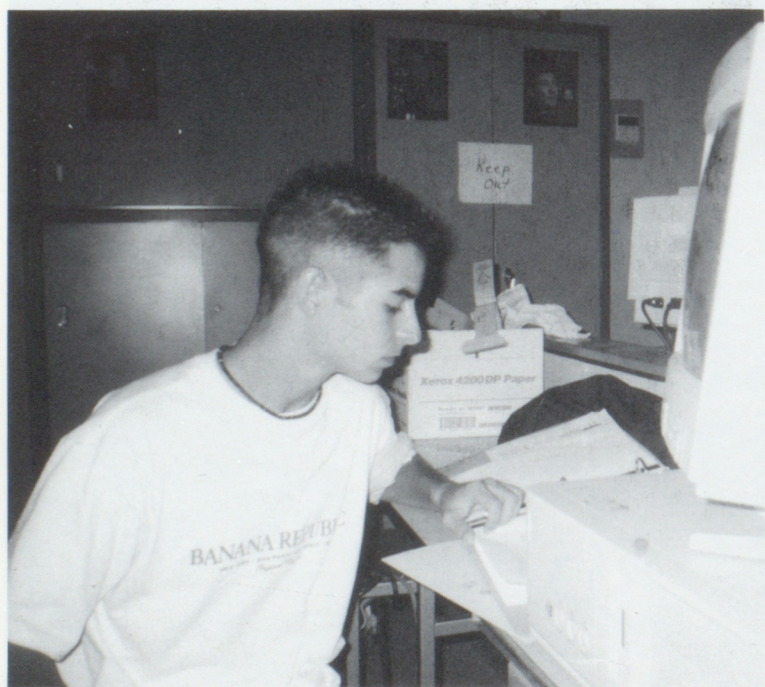

Olivia Guilbaud is one of the seniors that sells snacks and other treats in the Snack Shack. The Snack Shack is run by Marketing.

Althea Valrey is very dazed and confused as she stares into the monitor.

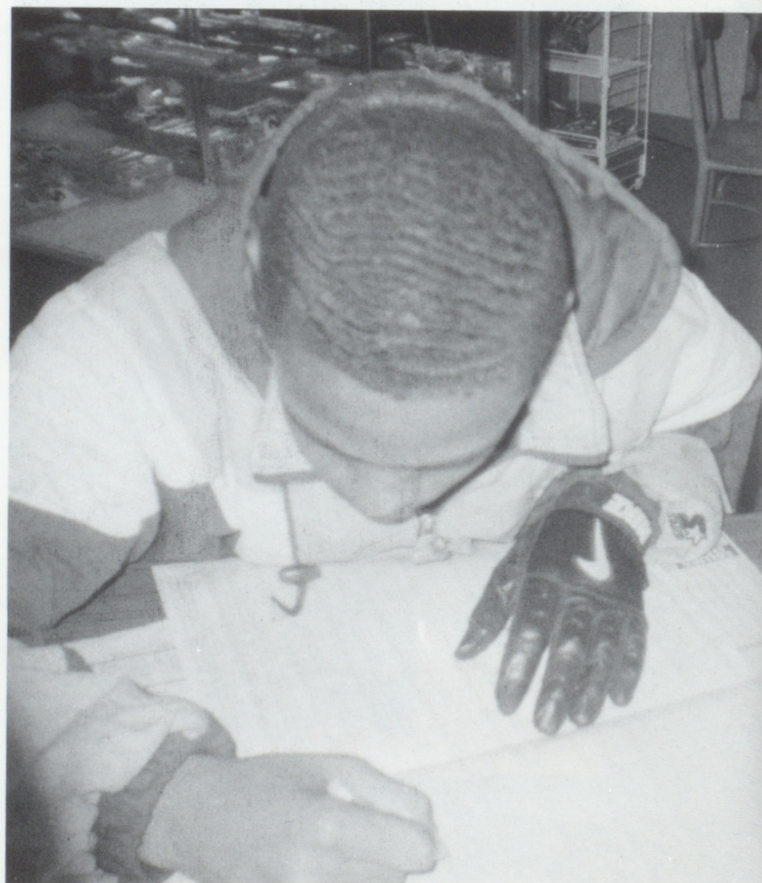

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“Opportunities drop in your lap if you have your lap where opportunities drop.”-unknown

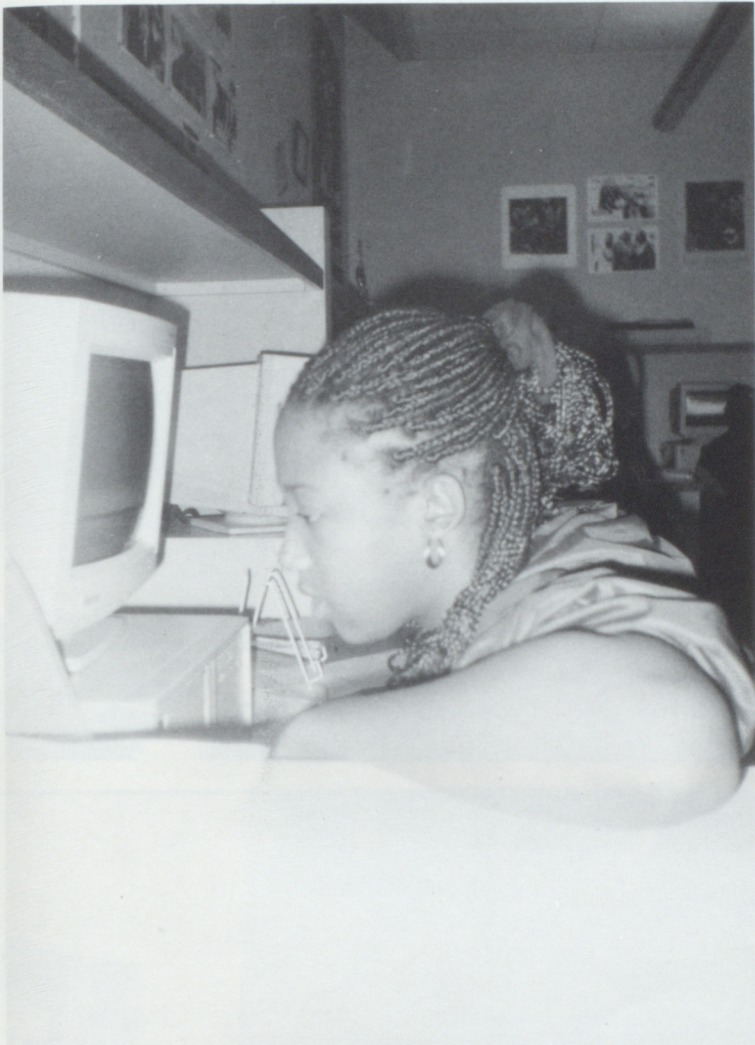

Senior Jason Marshall flips through his papers trying to find his computer printout. The printout determines each student's grade in Mr. Capling's class.

Latasha Mc Corvey sits and intensely focuses as she reads the Microsoft Office workbook. Latasha is a junior this year.

Junior Elizabeth Bernabe and senior Jennifer Leones calculate their shares trying to see if they have made the jackpot.

Mr. Zialcita is looking over Martha Cordova's calendar. Each month students in Mr. Zialcita's class publish their own calendar.

Erik Esparza types away ... this sophomore has skills that spell out SUCCESS.

Senior John Mc Cloud is improving his knowledge by studying the stock market.

Computers &

Band And Choir

The choir practices a song for the Winter Concert. Olivia Kith, Gwen Farrell, Jenny Melson, Angela Kith, Vonetta Moody and Christina Darden made up part of the tenor section.

CHOIR: Patisa Fields, Maggie Moore, Alejandro Blanco, Kendra Nixon, Harold Desmond, Josh Carter, Christina Darden, Jo Haines, Christina Mankin, Jenny Melson, Vonetta Moody, Lena Lopez, Olivia Kith, Angela Kith, Kenyale Jamerson-Nails.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“Music is the universal language of the soul.”

The band in formation waits patiently to begin the competition. This band review was held in Walnut Creek.

At half time during the football game the band plays for the crowd. Our percussion section was the main attraction during this time.

The flag team smiles for the camera showing their relief after the long, hard band review.

PE & JROTC

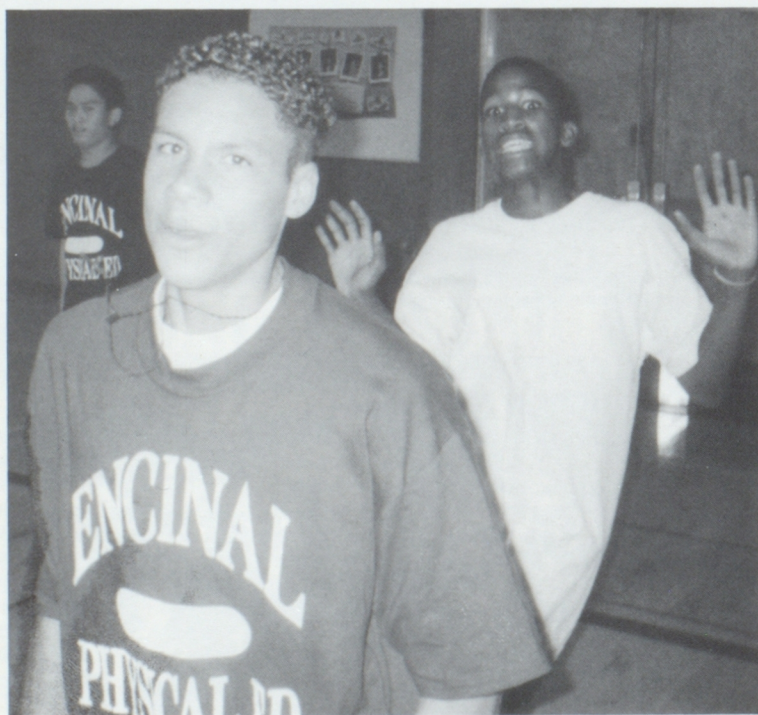

A bunch of JROTC students pay close attention to the lecture that they are getting from Sgt. Major Burton.

"Net"!!!! The 3 Musketeers do volleyball drills during the 3 week volleyball rotation in PE.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

"The difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of knowledge, not a lack of skill, but a lack of will."

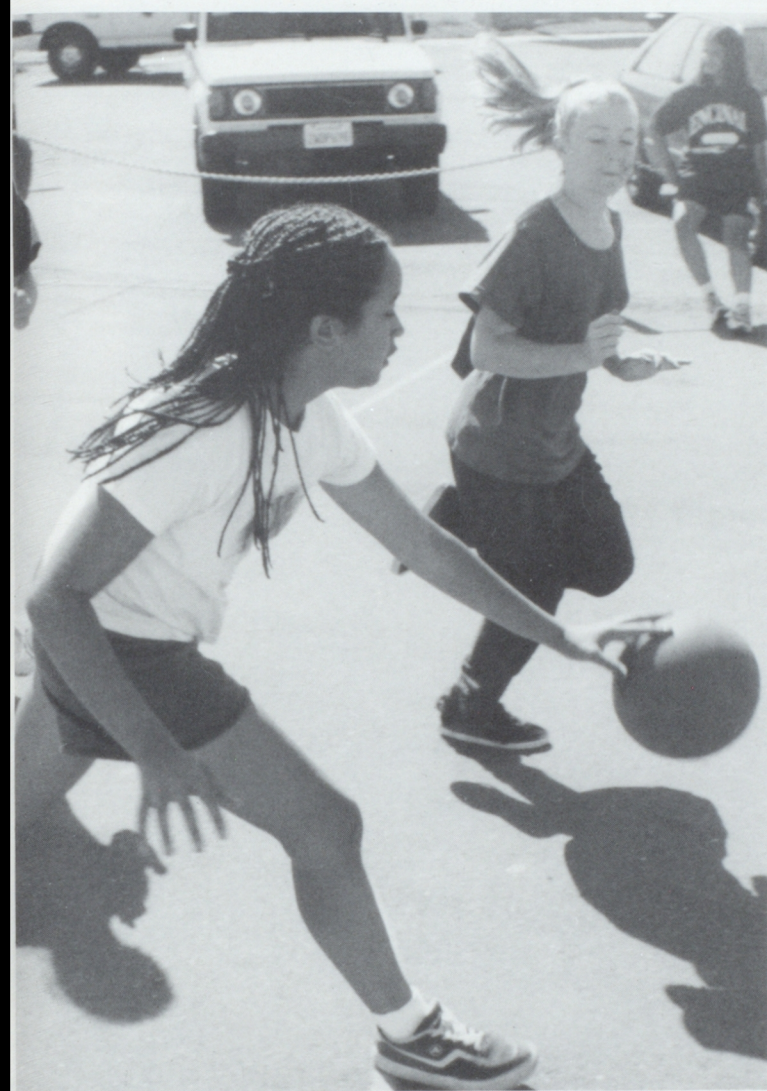

Chris Payopay stops and shows off his PE uniform while his classmate Hallard Jackson tries to sneak in the picture with a hilarious pose.

Jordanna Burgo looks down smiling with happiness while she checks to see if her metals are shiny enough.

Ashley Stewart challenges Andrea Joseph to a game of 21 during their PE class.

Shana Hullana smiles for the camera as she shuffles through her papers during JROTC class.

Vera Villanueva gets ready to serve the volleyball during Ms. Glenchur's third period PE class. Vera was a freshman this year.

Tez Bekele gets ready to serve the tennis ball during the 3 week tennis unit in PE.

JROTC students getting ready to raise the flag for Encinal's big game against Alameda High. Encinal beat Alameda with the winning score 20 to 22. "Go Jets"!!!!

Arthur Andersen & Drama

Does it bite? Glenisha White looks a little unsure about her classmate Katie Shaw holding Coile as part of their diverse population.

Watch out Teddy Desmond! Taryn Bradley has you in check while rehearsing a boxing scene in an Encinal play called "Ernie's Incredible Illusions."

Look! Julie Tapia shows off all her friends at the Arthur Andersen Community Learning Center. There are approximately 120 students in AACLC this year.

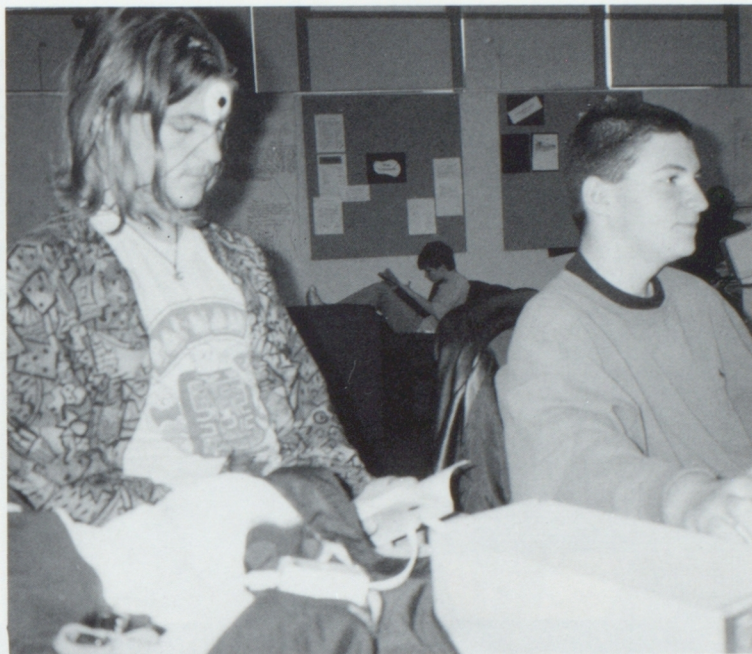

Where's the pom-poms? Anna Babasa, Dwayne Cox Whitney Woolf, and Ebony Kirton have a great time while cheering on their favorite boxer in the fall drama production.

Darryl Pantonial listens to CD's and works on a program on the computer at AACLC. He is a junior this year.

Cory Roberts reads attentively, while Jesse Mc Donnell measures his brain activity through the brain probe on the computer.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“The mind stretched by a new idea never returns to its original dimensions”-E.C. Mc Kenzie

Jerome Barnes, Alexandra Smith, and Patricia O'Neill are playing the part of the fans in the Encinal play. The play was performed December 11, 12, and 13.

Phweet!! John Lucas the referee, calls Calvin Griffith into the ring to introduce him to the fans. Calvin played the boxer named “Eddie Edwards”.

Arthur Anderson

Education Off Campus

Jack Chung tries to get on the Executioner's good side at the Renaissance Fair. He was one of the many students in the English Honors class at the sophomore level.

Scott Destafaney, Ryan Newton, and Jordan Monroe warm up even though they are cold. They are getting ready to march in one of their many band reviews.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

Enthusiasm is contagious-and so is the lack of it.

Diane Baucom and Karen Vargas show their Jet Pride by wearing blue lipstick. They are currently watching other school bands march.

Holding the binoculars in her hands, Aracely Vega looks to see what all the action is about. She's attending Mr. Wilson's and Mama Maafi's Stargazing Party.

First sergeants Horbach, Buckingham, Balolong, McKean, and Henry present the colors to the people at the D-Day memorial in San Francisco. These are a few members of the Jet Battalion.

Sarah Johnson helps a student at Paden Elementary School find Waldo. She is one of many students in Mrs. Robison's Careers with Children class.

"Ex-juniors" Johnny H.K. Luong, Michelle Fang, Ping-Ping Linh, and Eliza Ong are near Vernal Falls on an annual trip to Yosemite. They are seniors this year and are planning to go again with their English class in May.

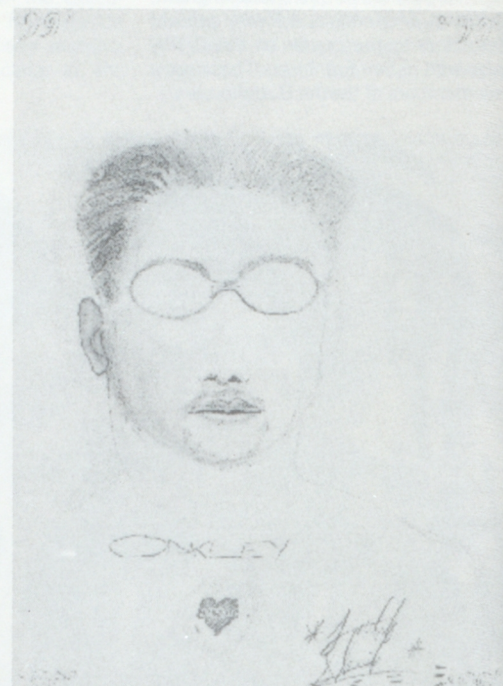

Seniors Natalie Moyer, Judy Jeung, Marla Anderson, Belinda Maldonado, and Tereasa Chavez try to find a place to have the senior prom. They are the Senior Class officers for the Fall Semester.

Our Last Day

Our last day is drawing near,
The final day of our senior year.
A time to laugh, a time to cry, but,
never time to say goodbye.
It seems like only yesterday when we were hangin' out at the mall.
Our friends were always there for us,
to get us through the day, and somehow they always knew the right things to do or say,
Now the time has to come, The day is finally here.
We want just one more day, to tell our friends 'goodbye'.
It could be a while before we see them again.
We're not completely sure of what to do or say.
But, if we wish, we could wish for another day!!

Dedicated To The Class Of 1998

New Beginnings

Each chapter that is ending
Leads us to a new beginning.
The past that we are leaving
Means a future we are winning.

Each change that fills the present
Sets the stage for our tomorrow,
And how we meet each challenge
Helps determine joy or sorrow.

In every new beginning
Spirit plays a vital part.
We must approach tomorrow
With a strong and steady heart.

So as we turn the corner
Let all apprehension shed
And fill our hearts with confidence
As we proceed ahead.

Juniors

As the second millennium comes to a close, the human race prepares to pass another milestone. We celebrate how far we've come, and we wonder about how far we have left to go. This year's junior homecoming skit was a living enactment of the Encinal World Wide Web page, a virtual tour of Encinal's unique styles of fashion, music, and dance. This year's junior student council president, Vanessa Shaw-nego, will also have the honor of overseeing the last dance. What a way to end the year!

The Varsity Football Team

Go Jets!!!

Give it up to this year's Encinal Jets Varsity Football Team. For the second year in a row since 1980 they made it to the play-offs. Early in the season, the Jets were in the spotlight. The team practiced long and hard to beat El Cerrito, a team who caused them disappointment last year, but the great plays and the tremendous turnout wasn't enough to stop the El Cerrito Gauchos. Encinal lost their first game under the lights 36-6.

That loss didn't stop the Jets though. They went on to play winning games against teams like Richmond and De Anza. Games like these led our mighty Jets to the play-offs. The loss to Alhambra at the Diablo Valley College ended their season with 6 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie.

Wide Receiver Mike Gbologah makes a great attempt to complete a pass. Unfortunately, an opponent gets his hands in there and picks off the ball ... Better luck next time.

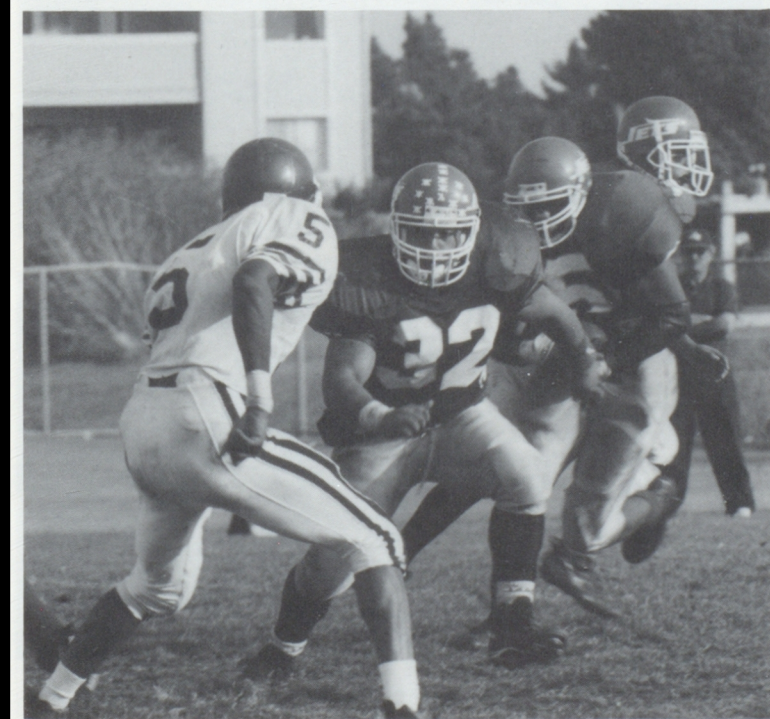

Defensive End Derrick Lyons holds down the opposing team as Running Back Kevin Ward comes from behind for a great tackle.

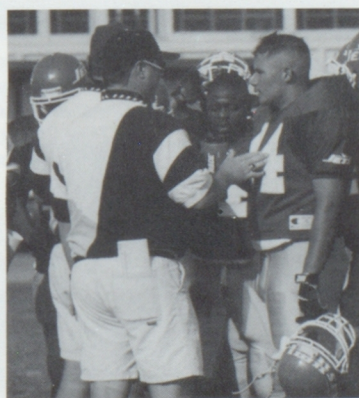

Luc Harris patiently waits for game time to come as he gets his ankles taped up.

Coach Stewart doesn't seem to be pleased as he watches the game from the sidelines. Let's get this guy some pads and a helmet!

Offensive Tackle Raoul Fabian gets ready to perform a head on tackle on an opponent. Call a medic!!!

Anthony Blea listens as Coach Saunders gives him advice on the upcoming plays.

97-98 Freshman Team Makes History

Jamitta Mays First Girl On Team

This year's freshman football team was what you'd call very unique. Why? Because this is the first year ever they had a female player on the team and in their league. The young lady by the name of Jamitta Mays feels that being the only girl to play football this year was kind of weird, but otherwise a great experience. The coaches treated her as an equal player: No slack! This pretty much has been a good season for the whole team. Though they lost a few games, they also had a few good games, too! The most memorable game this season was their last game against De Anza, which they won. Team leaders Marcus Normant & Mac Curry were very dedicated and contributed to a feeling of team spirit. A truly unique group, team work was no hassle for these freshmen.

RB James Laqui runs the ball back from El Cerrito while Jacob Gilman attempts to guard his man.

J.V. Football

Doing Their Best

The starting season was rough because the JV team was low on players. But Jason Lewis, Dylan Collins, Will Thomas, and Dan Deslierres helped keep the team together. Louis Senna and Alonzo Jackson would have to be some of the best players offensively on the team. The best game that the J.V. played was against Alameda High, because the pre-game hype was so big because it was the Island Bowl. The J.V. coaches staff was the best staff in the League. Defensively the J.V. team was lead by Jason Lewis, Dylan Collins, and the outstanding freshman Derrek Williams. At the end of the season the team had great chemistry and the season turned out well.

The Jets tackle the Hornets in the game.

RB-Louis Senna eludes a Hornet defender as he attempts to run for extra yardage.

Will Thomas is brought down as he gains the 1st down for the Jets. Will was the starting Q.B. for the JV team.

Jason Lewis stretches to beat Alameda Hornets.

Lady Jets Volleyball

Struggling To Make It Work

The Lady Jets volleyball team struggled this season. It was said that they just weren't able to pull it together. But it wasn't all bad for our women's volleyball team. Latasha McCorvey told us that, "Our best game was when we took a team five sets and that game we played as a team." There were a total of three seniors on this year's volleyball squad; Two were returnees: "Apple" Pineda and Denise Deang. The new senior was Megan Lawer, who was known to her team for her power serve. Tran Nguyen, a junior, also had a nice serve and a fast swing for spiking. And the combination between the "Tag Team Duo", Latasha McCorvey and Madel Pineda, was always a winner with Madel setting and Latasha's kills on spikes. The JV team also had a tough year. They struggled this year because they lacked height. Returning Junior Vicki Serrato said "We played our best when we had a four game winning streak." This just wasn't the year for our woman's volleyball team, but they stuck with it to the end.

Ellen Gee gets on her hands and knees begging to hit the ball, please.

The 1997-98 JV Volleyball Team: Vicki Serrato, Theresa Roche, Kriten Nietes, May Tai, Monique Trinidad, Jennifer Lopez, Jennifer Vergara, Jory LaTorre, Yrene Meeter, Thuy Uyen Bui, Jasmine Victa, Whenalyn Espinoza, Raushanah Bashir, Christina Grajeda, Coach Kristin Glenchur and Coach Francis Onia.

Apple Pineda does a simple bump. It's an everyday easy play for this senior volleyball player.

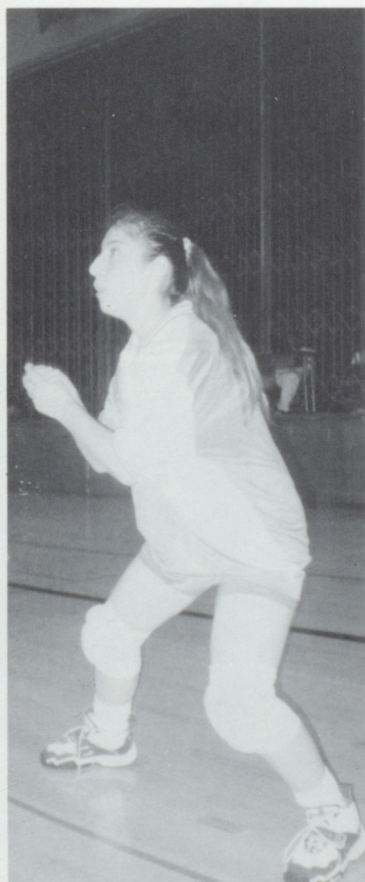

Raushauna Bashir, power server, gets ready to serve another ace.

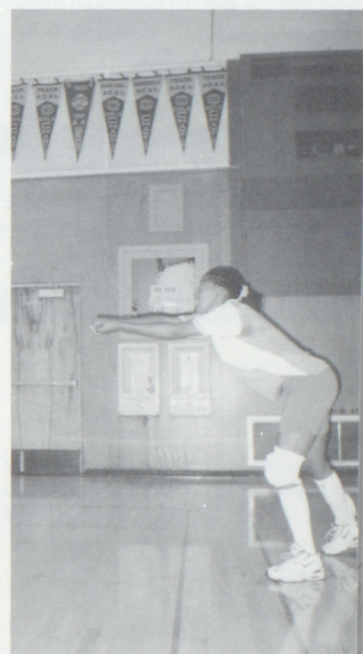

"I got it!" Denise Deang saves the play with a bump.

Megan Lawer, one the the three seniors on this year's volleyball team, hits the ball with ease.

Riga Hasieb is ready for anything with her eye on the ball and her head in the game.

Go, Big, Blue!! The Encinal cheerleaders chant as they watch and share their spirit with the crowd and players at various football and basketball games. The cheerleaders are separated into three different squads: Varsity Football, Varsity Basketball and JV Basketball.

Watching them cheer, no one would believe that they've gone through three coaches in only one year. Even though so much change has taken place, they've stuck together and still manage to entertain us with their flashy moves and great coordination. This will be a tough act to follow!

QUOTABLE QUOTE

"Ability is what you are capable of doing. Motivation determines what you do. Attitude determines how well you do it."

-Lou Holtz-

Football cheerleaders, Cristina Wilkins and Amber Hattley, smile with relief after an exciting winning game against Alameda High. Their spirit continues to shine even after the game is over.

Varsity football cheerleader Althea Valrey stands at attention as the flag is raised before the game. The girls not only have spirit, they also have pride!

During halftime, the cheerleaders perform a dance program they've been practicing after school.

Combined as one, the JV and Varsity Cheerleaders perform during one of the boy's basketball games. Sink it!

Can you do this?! The JV and Varsity Basketball cheerleaders work together to show us what they've been working on. It's a success and only the first time they've performed this stunt.

Lady Jets Basketball

Taking It To The Next Level

The Lady Jets had an up and down year. They went through some good times and some bad times. But one thing is for sure, they stuck with it to the end. Their season started off well, winning their first game. They ended their regular season with a 4 game winning streak. The Lady Jets also went to the AC-CAL league playoffs for the second year in a row, but this year they went all the way to the Super Powerhouse Division Championships. Although they lost that game, they still had a birth in the NCS. Next year they hope to go even farther. They will still have a strong team with returning Junior All-League player Latasha McCorvey coming back. Even though they did well this season, let's hope they do even better next year.

Noelle Samuels makes the play. Count'em ... two more points for this up-and-coming freshman.

"I believe I can fly!" Latasha McCorvey gets up for an easy lay-up.

EHS Water Polo

Destined For Greatness

This year's Water Polo team came in with the desire to win, with returning Varsity starters Alejandro Flores and Scott Destafney leading the way. Both Flores and Destafney received the award for "All League". The Jets ended their season with an overall record of 10-13.

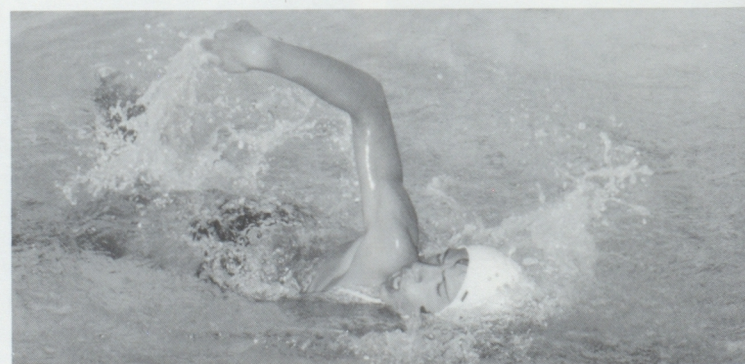

With new coach Eric Bryant at the helm, the Jets moved along in an up and down season. Coach Bryant empowered his team by teaching the importance of a good work ethic. The striving Jets improved within every game as they went along.

In their last game of the season the mighty Jets pulled out their greatest victory. Each member of this young team scored at least one goal in a romping over De Anza.

Jack Chung Takes time out From practice to pose for the camera. Jack is predicted to be one of the best goalies the Jets have seen in their great history.

Benji Florendo prepares to "gun" the ball into a wide open net. Benji was one of the six returning players to the polo squad.

Track Team

Working Harder

This year's track team is going to have a good season. They have tough runners on the team, and because most of them have run cross-country they have already had a lot of weight-training. The team has good coaching this year and they have gotten stronger mentally and physically. The track team operates under two coaches. The girls are coached by Coach Scott. The new coach for the boys is Coach Witherspoon. Both of the coaches demand a lot of discipline from their team and take the team places to improve and get them ready for the State Championships. With such great coaching and experienced team members, the year is looking like a good one.

Cross Country

Running Hard

This season for the Cross Country team, was kind of hard because they lacked enough people, but it was a pretty good year for their first year running Cross Country. One of the best runners on the team was Ebony Kirton. She puts a lot of effort in the team, and she is very strong. Michelle Armstrong was also a very good runner on the team. She was also strong. To do all this they had to go through hard practices to come this far. They had to run the beach, lake, and also the hills. They had a coach that coached them very well. He gave them a lot of discipline but it was for the best. The Cross Country team thought they wouldn't make it this far, but they were wrong.

Kim Wilson is getting a good stretch in between practice.

Boys' And Girls' Tennis

Serve, Swing, Volley!

This year's Girls' and Boys' Tennis Teams have done tremendously well. The girls' team consisted of 11 players, 3 of which were returning. They were under the coaching of EHS P.E. teacher, Diana Jenkins. Though they didn't win many games this year, they still hung in there and got ready to come back next year. The boys' team is under the coaching of Chet Lelio. Of the 4 returning players, 2 are seniors playing their last year of High School tennis. The boys' have shown lots of spirit during their season, starting out slow, but still racking up wins throughout the season.

The two teams started their seasons at different times, the girls' in the fall and boys' in the spring. Both teams, just like last year, still strive to have their teams recognized by the school and hope to get more students to come support them at their games. The players look to next year to bring them more wins, more players, and even more fun.

Boys' Schedule:

Hard Hittin' Jets

Some would say that Badminton is not a "real" sport. This year's Badminton team is representing Jet Pride to the fullest and has proven everyone wrong.

This so-called "non-sport" involves fancy footwork, superb hand and eye coordination, and quick reflexes. The Jets take to the gym from 3:30 to 5:00 for some hard hitting practice every afternoon.

Through endless hours of hardwork and assisted by second year coach

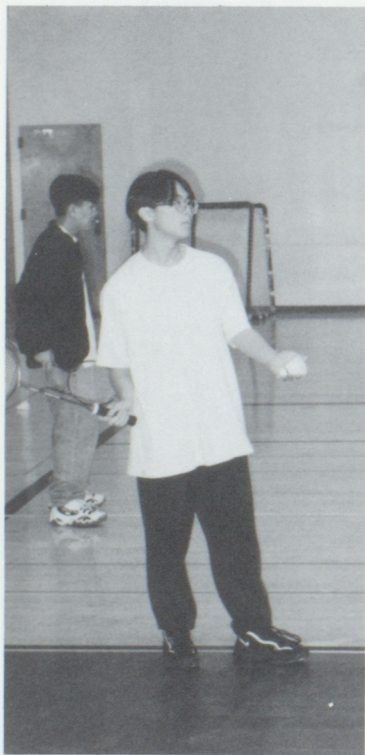

Kristin Glenchur, these young Jets strive to complete a strong season.

The Badminton team went head up with strong competitors such as Arroyo, Kennedy, Skyline, and Berkeley. The matches are tough, but the Jets manage to maintain a stable win/loss ratio.

If you dare lable Badminton as not a real sport, you better watch your back because the Jets Badminton team will be there to prove you wrong!

JV And Varsity Swimming

Swim On Swimmers

This year's Jet Swim Team entered the season with high expectations. Under the watchful eye of new coach Kim Kennedy, the Jets hope to better last year's respectable finish at the NCS Championships. The women's squad, led by returners Courtney DeBlieck, Erin Knoth, and Jennifer Harlan, looks to be victorious once again. The addition of almost twenty new swimmers should help greatly. The men, who finished in the top half of swimmers at NCS last year, have their eyes on bigger and better things. The Jets face six meets this year, hoping to do well in all. Varsity returnees Benji Florendo, J.R. Steele, Scott Destafney and Alejandro Flores are once again feared throughout the ACCAL and Northern California. This year promises to be one of the greatest for the Encinal Swimmers; The dynasty continues ...

Free-styling head-up, Jennifer Harlan works on increasing her upper body strength during practice.

The Boys' Soccer Team

Under the eyes of new coach Jeff Bishop, this year's Boys' Soccer Team was off to a slow start. Four weeks into the season, the team was already 1 and 7. The one win against Barion Christian was achieved in the first week of the season, but, unfortunately, the season didn't get much better. Senior Omar Sharifi, who plays full-back, had a few things to say in a short interview with him after practice. He said, "I've been playing on Encinal's team for most of the years I've been here. This year's team, to me, is the strongest team I've been on. We just aren't focused enough and don't have enough teamwork."

More than half of the team consists of seniors, with only about three freshmen. Hopefully, the retiring players have left next year's team with lots of hard knowledge, leaving the team stronger and more focused. Good luck Jets!

With the help of teammate Brian Diaz, affectionately nicknamed "Chipman," the opponent is momentarily halted, giving Gerson Cardona enough time to aim and kick.

Khalid Naweed never takes his eyes off the ball as he runs to keep it in Encinal's hands ... or should I say feet?!

Mike Gbologah shows off some fancy footwork as he gets control of the ball. As a senior this year, he's the captain of the team.

The Girls' Soccer Team

This year's Girls' Soccer Team is coached by Diana Jenkins. In contrast with the Boys', the Girls' team is quite young. They consist of mostly sophomores with no seniors at all. Five weeks into their season, they were already 0 and 5.

Many players suggest that it is the youth of the team that puts them at a disadvantage. Without much experience, it'll make it tough for the girls to end a season with very many wins. But with a great coach and lots of determination, they'll pull through.

Hopefully, two years from now, Encinal's Girls' Soccer Team will gain more experience. Good luck next year Jets!

Daniella Sotelo slides through the mud, but still manages to keep the ball moving.

Noelle Bernhard gives the ball a good kick and watches it go through the air. She scares the goalie with the great kick and close goal.

Coach Jenkins watches from the sidelines as her team makes many attempts at a goal. This is Coach Jenkins' first year at Encinal and also her first year as the Girls' Soccer coach.

Varsity Baseball

At The Top...Again

All the rainy weather and El Nino couldn't stop these Jets from coming out on top. Starting at 8-1 early in the season, the Jets felt that this would be a pretty good year and that they would be in line for the championship once again. With six returning seniors and young players like Derrek Williams and Victor Davis, the varsity team made its way through over 20 games. Raoul Fabian said one of the best games was against Salesian because "we shut them out!" The senior players like Vern Burrell who will leave Encinal this year, will remember this season as a "cool" one; both because of the wins that put them in line for a championship & the weather that kept them off the field.

Braving The Rain

The start of this season for the JV Baseball Team was rough. They didn't get much pre-season practice hitting the ball because of the rain, and a month into the season they were just 1-5. But, with all the hard times, they still managed to enjoy the taste of victory. They beat Salesian, scoring 14 runs.

Kyle Kingston and Bobby Villar led the team in hitting, Julian Vigay led in stolen bases, and Mark Buckingham scored the most homeruns early on. Hard working and coachable players like Francisco Gonzalez helped to round out a team that hopes to finish in the top three in the league.

We Got Game

This year's Lady Jets Softball team is going strong. The team is pretty mature with fourteen returning players and only four newcomers. With David Johns Head Coach and Jerry Ludy, the new Assistant Coach, the Lady Jets hope to reach the North Coast playoffs once again. Because of early season instabilities, the ladies this year started out a little rusty, but it all comes in time. Not having a sure idea of positioning, Coach Johns is faced with some important decision making before it's too late. Practice was held for two hours or more every day after school starting from back in February. Hard work and determination were the keys to the Lady Jet's success. With the ability, spirit and their stylin' new uni's, this year's Lady Jets Softball team is great, inside and out.

Varsity Basketball

League's Highest Score

For Joe Powell, the most memorable game of the season would have to be against Livermore when he dunked and ripped the net in Encinal's gym. Indeed, the boys varsity basketball team had quite a year on the court and think they did all right despite the adversity they had to go through. Everyone thought they wouldn't win any games, but they only failed to make the playoffs by 3 wins. Their coaching this year was a whole lot better than last year's and the result was that they were more conditioned and ran their plays better. The team still thinks they should have made it to the N.C.S., but know they lost too many close games. The problem, they agree, was that they just couldn't keep a big lead. Losing a big lead, though, means that you did have one. That's sure not a bad place to start from next year!

J.V. Basketball

League Champs

The season was great for the J.V. team. They finished 19-7. Jerrett Canfield feels that he did his part. Adam Ponikvar played good rebounding and, emotionally, Will Conage and Frank Turner both played major roles. But their winning came from a whole team effort. The team thought for sure they would go undefeated, but they lost nine players right before the first game because of grades. Their Coach who came this year from a rival school had to learn how his new team acted and played. They handled many ups and downs like this during the year and still managed to win League. One of the best games was the St. Joseph's. The Jets team played with only 7 people and Jerrett Canfield played with a broken hand. Still they beat them pretty easily and celebrated after the game by spraying each other with apple cider courtesy of Will Conage. They may have lost a few games, but the spirit of this team shows a perfect record.

This year's freshman basketball team almost earned the title of "undefeated". They finished the season 20-1. As well as having a great technical season, this team showed a lot of team spirit and skill. They owe it all to their new coach Scott Hipole. Team member Mickey Weaver-Dewitt says, "He's a good coach and he taught us a lot of new things about the sport; also with the team's help and support, we all worked together as a family and played hard. Yup, this has definitely been a great season." With a freshman team like this, Encinal can look forward to seasons of winning and excitement!

Drill Team And Rifle Team

If you thought the Drill Team and Rifle Team were the same, you were wrong. For a quick summary, the Rifle Team shoots the rifle while the Drill Team performs with them.

For the past two years, the Drill Team has been under the command of Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Kristoferson Leonardo. Under his command are 28 cadets. They practice every day after school and perform at various events like the Veterans Day Parade and Encinal's Homecoming.

The Rifle Team is under the command of Cadet Captain Anton Belichev. This is his first year as the commander and he has about 22 cadets under his command. Like the Drill Team, the rifle team practices every day after school in the armory. There, you can see them shooting lead pellets at targets 10 yards away.

Both our Drill and Rifle Teams have been at Encinal since the 1920's. So if you haven't seen either of them, come down and watch this old Encinal tradition.

DRILL TEAM: Hung Nguyen, Miguel Gomez, Bruce Valrey, Thuan Nguyen, Andrew Yu, Andrew Jung, Tam Nguyen, Ernesto Hurtado, James Heitz, Jodi Nguten, Eugene Abellon, Krismin Innocentes, Thao Nguyen, Chau Ho, Jenny Duhay, Christina Genova, Pam Pel, Linda Pel, Nicki Le, Hai Le, Andre Calilung, Linh Vu, Maricel Loyola, Hai Tran, Kristoferson Leonardo, Paul Phliphol, Cindy Chung and Dayna Tran.

RIFLE TEAM: Matthew McKean, Duane Meier, Keith Oppel, Elise Lavanaway, Abdagani Ali, Le Trung, Vu Le, Cuong Pham, Tom Giannini, Jolie Smith, Mike Meier and Anton Belichev.

Sophomores

We the class of 2000 will proudly carry the torch of humanity into the third millennium. And until then, we'll have a lot of fun. This year's sophomore class was led by Jordanna Burgo, student council president, who helped decorate the sophomore's first place hallway, and choreographed the first place skit for homecoming. The skit was a humorous parody of the Oscar awards, with excerpts from "Speed," "Wayne's World," "Men in Black," and many others. Jordanna will also oversee the winter ball this January.

Yearbook

Our Editors this year: Joy Gerner, Vanessa Shawnego, Julius Cuevas, Jennifer Andersen, Toba Adina and Trenille Mims.

Keepin' The Encinaliens On File.

The 1998 Yearbook class is once again on a mission to publish another outstanding yearbook. With Ms. Aanestad (Kaesa) leading the staff, there's no doubt that this class will accomplish its goal. Although there are new faces on the Yearbook staff, it hasn't posed a problem. With only four returning members from last year's staff, the twenty-nine new students had to catch on quickly for they were working as professionals on deadline.

Ms. Aanestad split the Yearbook class into five Groups: Seniors, Activities, Mugs, Sports, and Academics. Each group works as a team, focusing on specific pages and assignments for every deadline. These busy individuals often stay during lunch and after school to make sure that they meet their deadlines. With every deadline met, the staff earns a pizza party or another reward. With 5 deadlines scheduled this year, staff members can look forward to a ton of work, a heap of stress, and a whole lotta pepperoni.

The '98 yearbook staff shows their jet pride by sporting their jet pets along with their smiles.

Our fearless leader, the one, the only Kaesa Aanestad, tries to cover up her stress with a sarcastic grin.

Activities: Vanessa Shawnego, Amanda Meier, Victoria Serrato, Nicole Espinoza, Lauren Burns, Suzy Wells and Lawrence Cimagala.

Seniors: Joy Gerner, Jamie Robbins, Danielle Del Rosario, Austin Tam, and Anh Do. (Not Pictured, Jynette Montgomery and Kiunda Wright.)

Academics: Toba Adina, Lolla Manibusan, Marjan Esmatyar, Jasmine Carr and Bruce Valrey.

Sports: Julius Cuevas, Trennille Mims, Althea Valrey, Allison Voss, Sherri Natac, Sherryl Navarette. (not pictured Briana Jenkins.)

Leadership

Leading Encinaliens To Excitement.

The Leadership class is once again proving themselves up to the challenges it faces year in and year out. This year's class has new faces, belonging to both students and their teacher, Mr. Kahane.

To make things easier, the Leadership class is divided into groups: Assembly, Spirit, Student Issues, Publicity, Community Service, Dance, Stereo, and Finance. It has a lot of responsibilities, like taking charge of several events held at Encinal.

Some of the events Leadership traditionally puts on are the Blood Drives, Homecoming Week, and Open Sales.

One event promoted by Leadership during lunch this fall was the Canned Food Drive Mini-Dance which gave students the chance to bring canned food to donate to the Red Cross. This showed the true spirit of not only the Leadership class, but Encinal students as well.

Another activity planned by Leadership was the Winter Assembly. Everybody from Leadership took part in this show, performing an adaptation of the Nutcracker. Other groups participated as well, sharing music and traditions from around the world.

Traditions, events, activities, and excitement-Ask an Encinalien where to find it and they'll take you to their leaders!

Leadership Class: Marla Anderson, Javaughn Bailey, Grace Baldoz, Aimee Barnes, Kameeka Bass, Dhanu Biggs, Taryn Bradley, Talecia Burnette, Andre Calilung, Tereasa Chavez, Tony Chung, Ryan Garcia, Judy Jeung, Kimlang Lewis, Michael Lopez, Rowena Magno, Natalie Moyer, Laura Ngo, Kimberly Pearson, Myle Phan, Kimberly Quinto, Rena Rivera, David Robinson, Brenda Saefong, Sharmale Shelton, John Tran, Jay Uppal, Jasmine Walker, Cristina Wilkins, Scott Wong

ASB officers: President: Tereasa Chavez, Vice-President: Marla Anderson, Secretary: Aimee Barnes, Treasurer: Kimlang Lewis, Spirit: Jasmine Walker, Publicity: Judy Jeung & Kim Quinto, Sergeant of Arms: Rena Rivera

Taryn Bradley, Natalie Moyer and Jasmine Walker listen to Sharmale Shelton tell them about the Sadie Hawkins Auction this year.

Rena Rivera and other members of the Leadership class decorate the Willie Stargell field for the Big Game.

Andre Calilung puts together a giant Jet Pet to be demolished during half-time at the Big Game.

Tereasa Chavez is busy working on banners for the Homecoming Dance.

Dhanu Biggs and Jay Uppal work on finances for the Leadership class to see how much money they can work with for the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Kim Quinto & Aimee Barnes put up posters showing Jet Pride for the cross-town rivalry between Encinal and Alameda.

Blood Drive...!

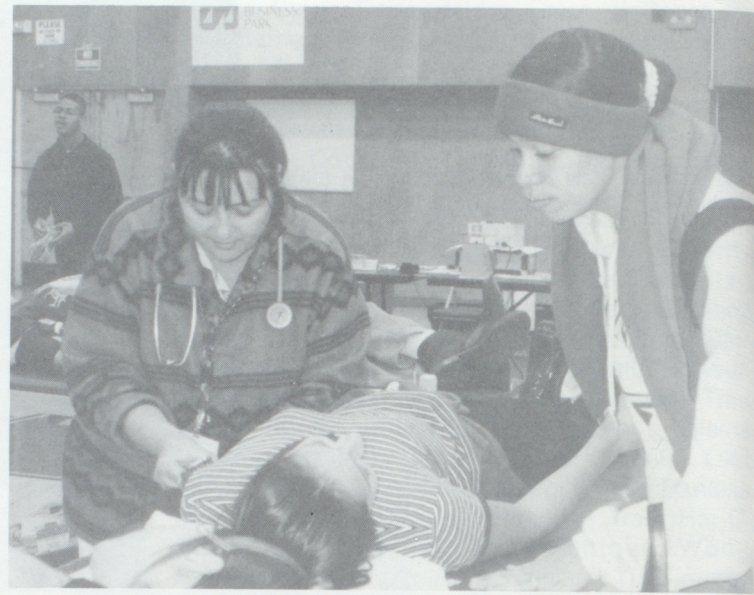

The Mighty Jets Put Their Blood On File.

Every year, two blood drives are undertaken at Encinal High. Staff and students are welcome to participate provided they meet the requirements. All those who donate must be at least 17 and weigh at least 110 pounds. Students with new piercings and tatoos must wait at least one year before they can donate blood. Before donating, all donors must give a medical history and have a mini blood test to check for iron levels.

The Leadership class is responsible for making this happen by recruiting blood donors. Every year, the blood drive usually is well-attended. Encinal should be proud of having such brave people at our school who have the guts to take a needle to help another person out and perform this important community service.

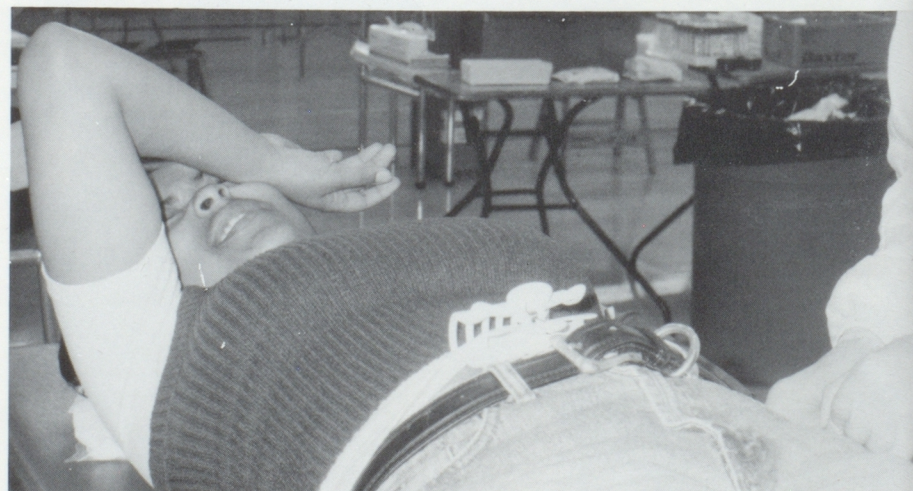

Natalie Moya grasps the hand of Donor Tereasa Chavez, while she gives a full pint of blood.

Deon Westbrook lies waiting patiently for a pint of his blood to fill up the bag.

Mr. Kahane is taken' it easy while the blood drains from his arm: a fearless leader!

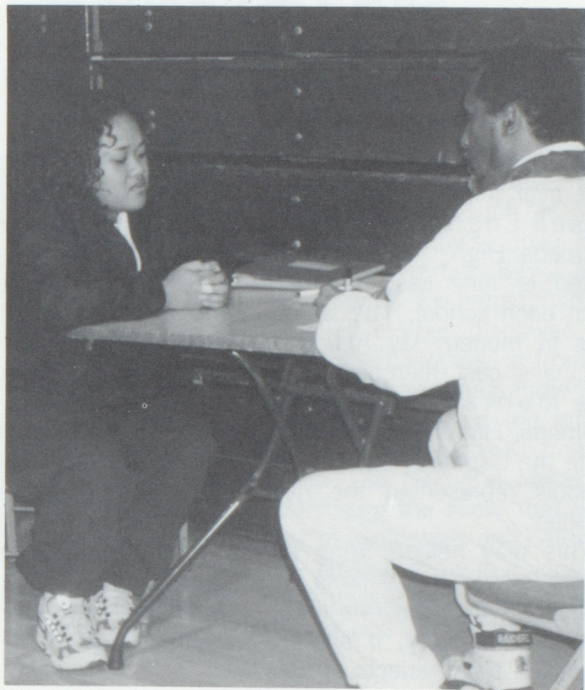

As a nurse inserts a needle into her vein, Tamera Crockett holds back her scream and clenches her teeth, resisting the pain.

Isreal Branson gets his finger pricked to test his iron level before he gives blood.

Jynette Taua is getting questioned by a consultant to make sure she is able to give that full pint of blood. All students must provide medical history in order to donate.

Treevera Lampley has her blood pressure taken as she prepares to donate her blood.

Belinda Maldonado tries to forget the pain by listening to her Walkman and singing along. The nurses suggest donors try to distract themselves so they don't focus on the discomfort.

Megan Lawer and Ryan Garcia try to replace some of the stamina lost in donating their blood. Many people feel less energetic for a few hours while their bodies readjust.

Romeo And Juliet

Encinal Vs. Alameda Two Families Both Alike In Dignity

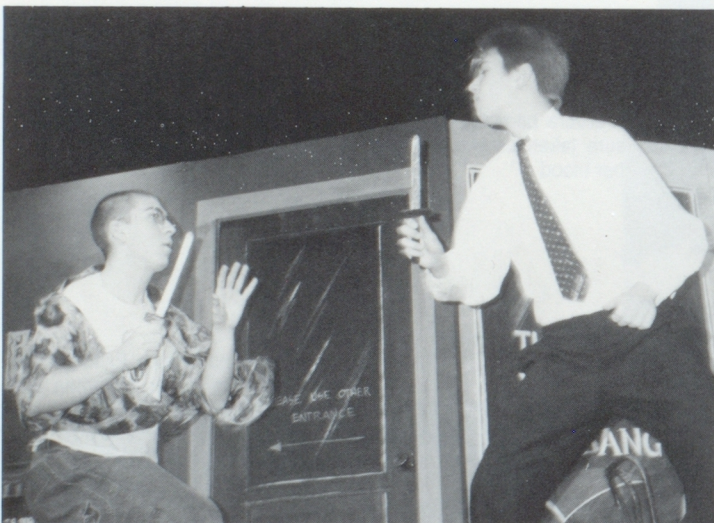

Romeo and Juliet was the first ever joint production between Encinal High and Alameda High. The cast consisted of nine cast members from each school. The setting was in modern-day Alameda. Encinal's cast members were the Montagues and the Alameda High cast members were the Capulets, so the rival schools represented the rival families.

This play helped bring the actors closer by working together. As they became familiar with the story, it showed them the tragic effects of how rivalry can hurt a lot of people if it is taken to the extreme. Audiences from each end of Alameda went to each others' schools to see the production. There were special matinees for ninth graders.

The play was shown on January 15th and 16th at Alameda High and on the 22nd and 23rd at Encinal High. Tickets were $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for kids. All the money that was raised went toward future joint productions between Encinal High and Alameda High.

Anna Babasa, the Nurse, meets and greets Daniel Foster, Romeo, as they secretly make arrangements for Romeo's marriage to the lovely Juliet.

Andrew Ingraham, Mercutio, defending his dear friend Romeo, fights Peter Calic, Tybalt, whose insults have driven him to the breaking point.

Jennie Romar, Abraham Montague, and Katie Willis, Gregory Capulet, are in a brawl over the "biting of a thumb."

Leslie Fales finds Daniel Foster lying beside her death bed. She tries to awaken him with a kiss, but finds him dead, and commits suicide herself.

Carla Carreon, Sister Lawrence, gathers her thoughts about whether to marry Romeo and Juliet while she waters her medicinal herbs.

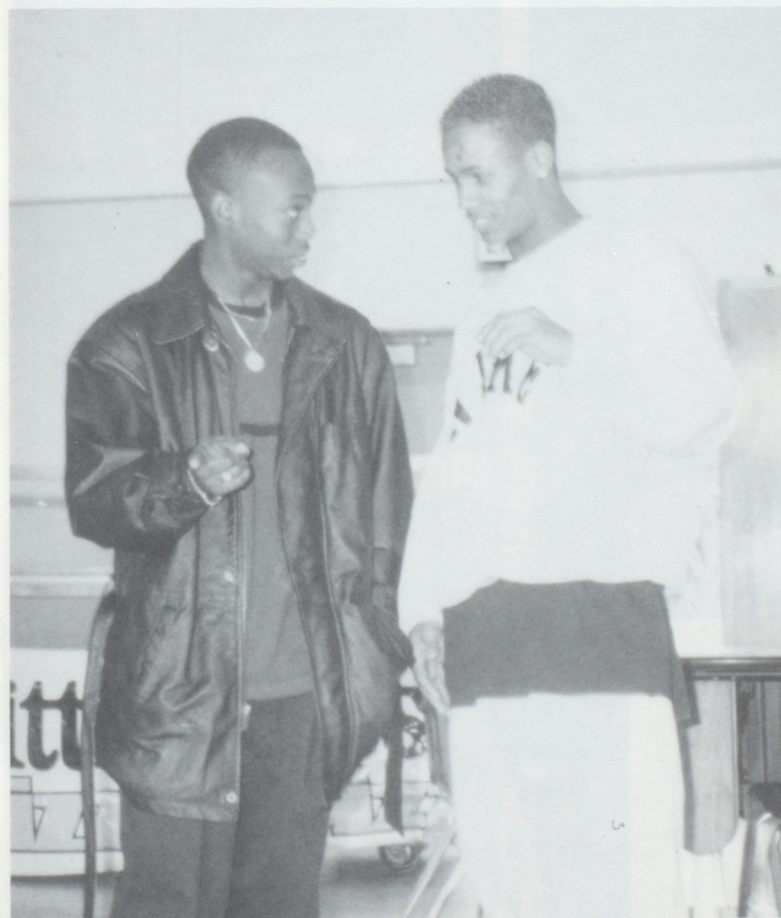

House Of Style

1998 Spring Fashion Show

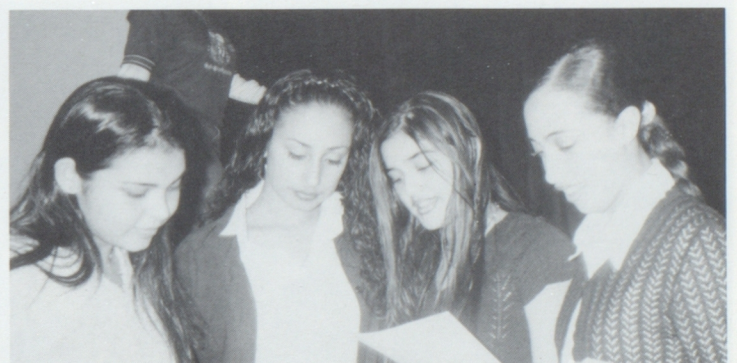

"House of Style, the 1998 Encinal High School Spring Fashion Show, will be held on Friday night, April 24, 1998 at 8:00 P.M. We anticipate over one thousand people at this event, given the many parents, students, and supporters of Encinal High School that will attend. Funds raised at our fashion show will be used to support one of the most diverse student bodies in the Bay Area. Our goal is to raise students to be well-informed, engaged and responsible citizens of the future.

Last year's show drew upon local businesses such as Macy's, J.C. Penny's, JoJo Bejano, The Harbor Bay Club, and Buffalo Exchange, which provided clothes displayed on our student models, in front of a large and admiring audience. TCI cable televised the entire show to over 60,000 households." So read the literature advertising the show that was sent to businesses and parents. The fashion show is a very exciting event that is fun for everyone and also a lot of hard work.

Above: Tatyana Mendoza and Edwin Jordan practice strutting their stuff down the catwalk for this year's fashion show. Tatyana is a returning model from last year's production.

Sergio Lopez teaches Damion Crenshaw how to walk the runway in preparation for house of style. This will be the modeling debut for both Sergio and Damion.

Models Zarlash, Monica, Mycelia, and Twila gather together and read the expectations of this year's show. All of them are newcomers to the show.

Terri Green and Dasha Chadwick encourage fellow models while they are waiting for their turns to prove that they "got what it takes".

Mr. Rodriguez watches as "House Of Style" comes together. Without the help of sponsor Mr. Rodriguez, the fashion show wouldn't be possible.

Sadie Hawkins Auction And Dance

Deborah Moore and Pinky Gates put their money together enabling Deborah to purchase Pinky's brother Jerome Barnes, as her date for Sadies.

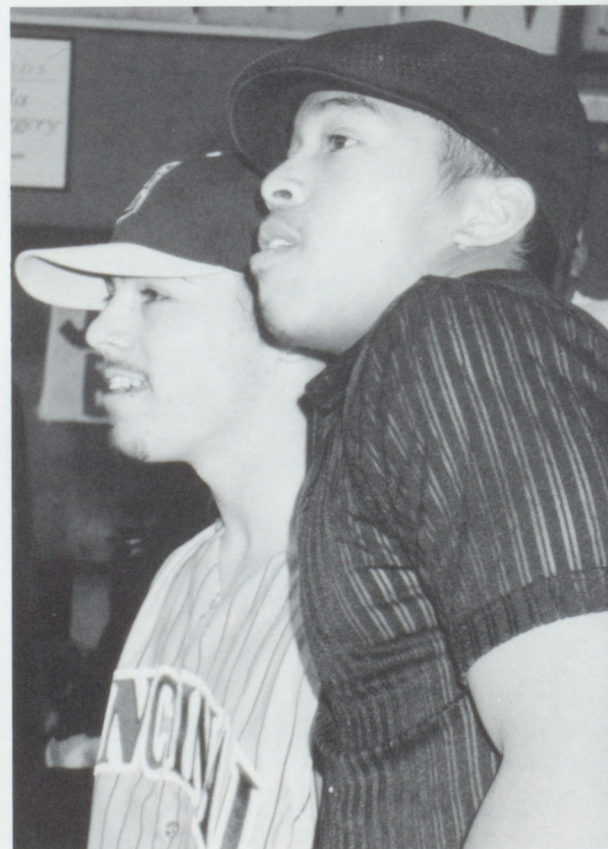

Muhammed Ali stands and waits while Sharmale Shelton advertises his fine qualities.

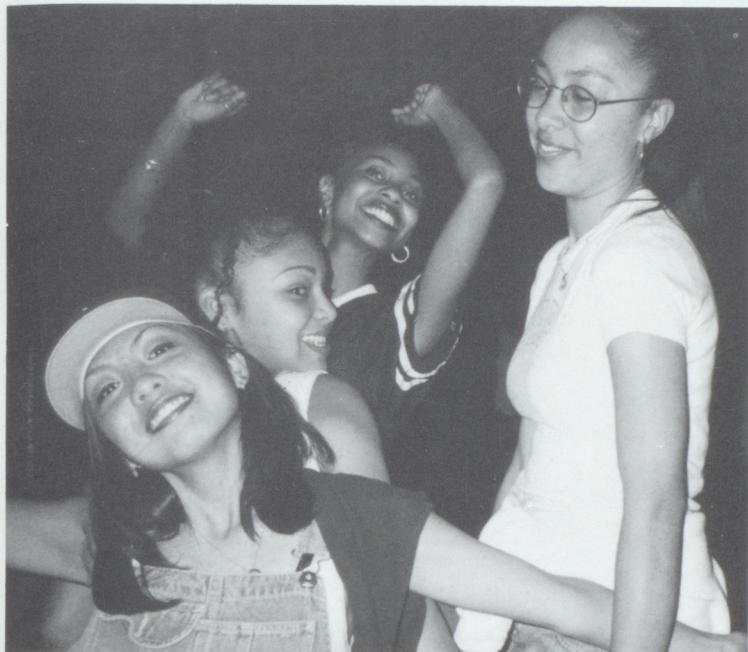

Above Center: The anxious ladies in the crowd get in a bidding war over the "merchandise". This year's auction was the second of it's kind at Encinal.

Christine Soto, Amanda Pokorny and Guisell Reyna congratulate Michelle Shawnego for her bravery and great purchase during the auction.

Eric Wilson, the top buy this year, encourages the "sale" of his friend Louie Senna. Eric and Louie are baseball teammates as well as "auction-mates".

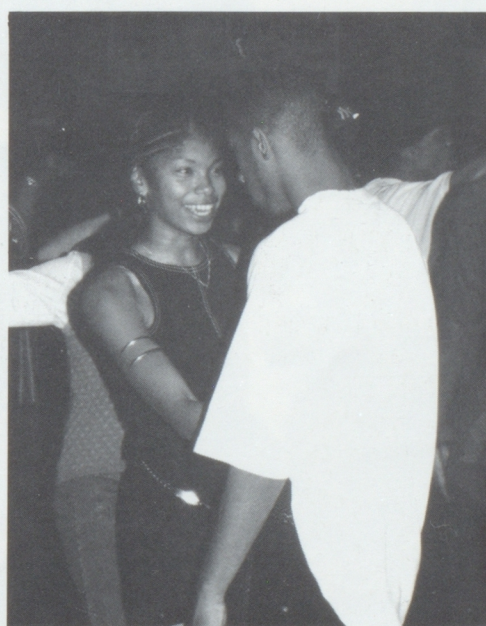

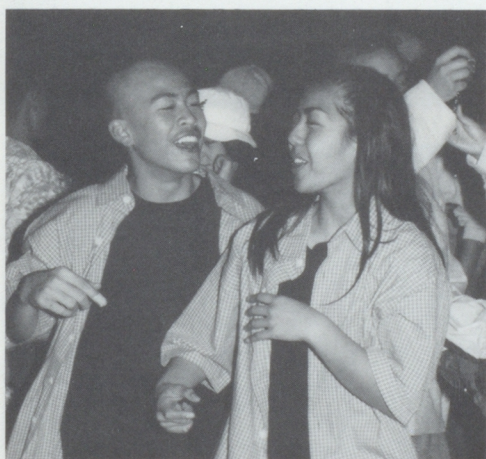

Gladys Murphy, Sayonara Silva, Jasmine Shanck and Jerlina Love get down and funky at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Lyleen Ramos and her date prepare for war and dance all their worries of combat away at Sadies.

Surf's up! Sachi Yoshi and Michael Dinh havin' fun dancing together in their fitters at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Among the crowds at Sadie Hawkins, Althea Valrey and Jermanie Johnwell take time for a romantic moment.

Dasha Chadwick and David Robinson aren't twins but as long as they're having fun, it's okay.

Above Center: Danielle Delrosario and Jorge Enriquez sportin' North Carolina fits along with smiles as they jam to the music of the D.J. at Sadies.

Time Out

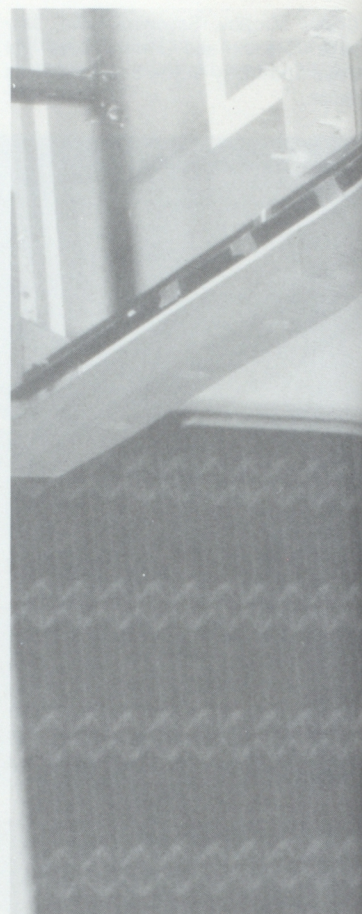

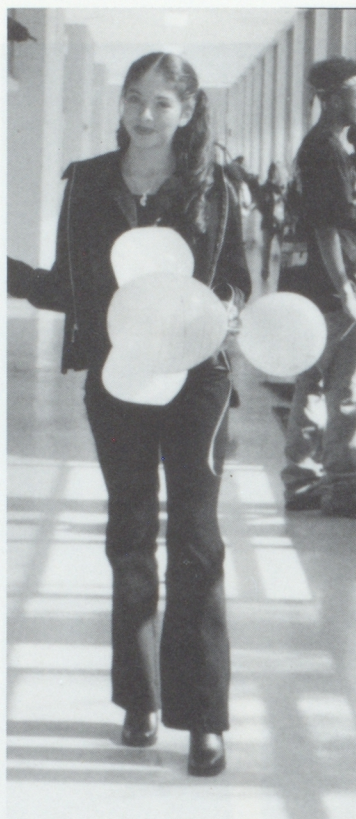

Let The Fun Begin

This year's school assemblies have been a success and the spirit behind them was very evident. School spirit is one of Encinal's strongest points. It motivates us to participate in school activities and have a sense of pride in our school. Rallies, dress up days, and representing your class in assemblies are basic events that demonstrate the intensity of our school spirit.

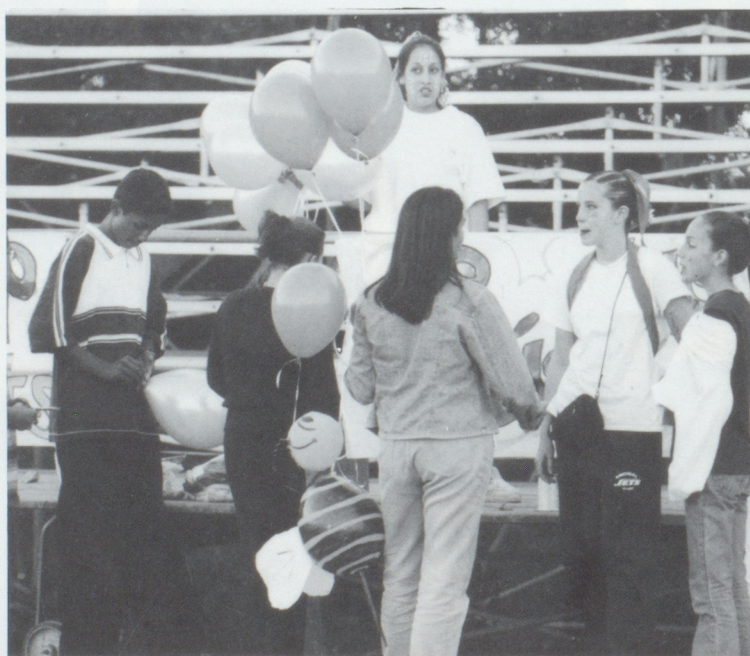

Encinal comes up with outstanding assemblies through the immense contribution of students working with the Leadership class. Leadership has always provided entertaining and fun assemblies. Having the Warriors' mascot, "Thunder" arrive at our pep rally was definitely one of the most original ideas. The school assembled this year for a variety of spirit rallies and assemblies celebrating special events, such as Homecoming, the holidays, Martin Luther King Jr.'s life, and pep rallies. Our assemblies are enjoyable and definitely memorable.

Strut your stuff and your Jet Pride. Jennifer Lopez has the right idea during Homecoming Week, as she carries her Jet Pet during the day of the Big Game.

Get down and boogie! Marshayla Shaw, Nikki Shaw, and Cornell Davis hit the high notes while dancing in the Martin Luther King Jr. assembly with the Encinal Voices of Gospel Choir.

Watch and learn. The Yearbook and Leadership classes show their spirit and help set up before the Big Game.

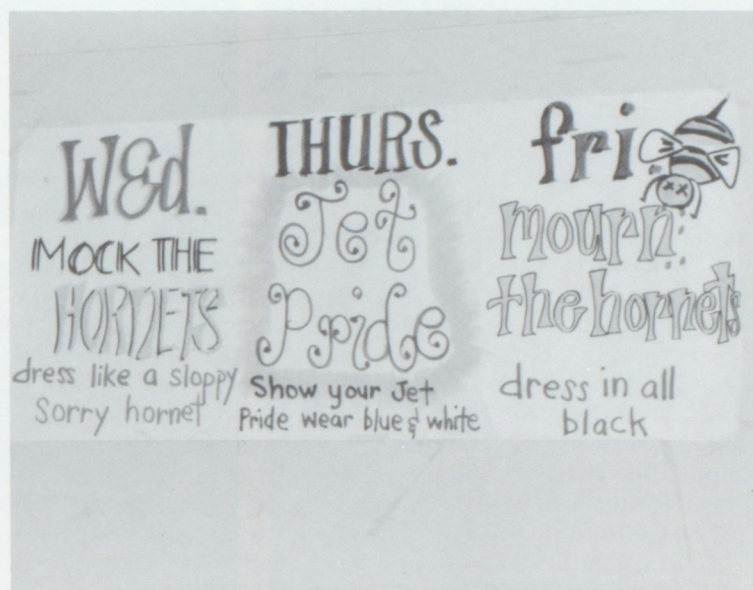

"Here, use this" ... says Major Burton, as he helps Cristina Wilkins overcome the technical difficulties Leadership was having during the Martin Luther King Jr. assembly.

Slam! Thunder, the mascot for the Warriors, shows off his many talents while performing for the Jets during a rally at lunch.

Signs cover our hallways during the week of the big game, making one more statement of our Jet pride.

Rashaunah Bashir waits for the upcoming assembly while her classmates gather around her.

Andrea Pearson, Lyleen Ramos and Grace Baldoz participate in the "stop the violence" march during an assembly honoring the life of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Boogie Nights

Dancin' The Night Away

Encinal's dances have always been successful, but this year, there have also been some ups and downs. The year's "Back To School Dance" welcomed new as well as old students back to school. "One In A Million" was the theme of Homecoming and the dance was well attended and, indeed it was one in a million as it was quite different from previous dances, because of the formal attire. This year, the Sophomore class decided to try cruising for the Winter Ball. Whether higher ticket prices or bad weather was to blame, the sophomore's grand plans did not work well. Due to poor ticket sales, the Winter Ball had to be canceled, but will reappear at the end of the year as the Sophomore Spring Fling. The JROTC also had the Military Ball, which was held on a ship, the Commodore. It was well attended and the guys wore their uniforms while their dates wore gowns. A student, Teddy Gabriel quotes, "That dance was worth my money, I had a lot of fun and they had good food." Other dances this year were Sadies, Unity Jam, Prom and "The last dance" with a Mardi Gras theme.

Jonathon Grisel, Matthew McKean and the rest of the village people perform YMCA for their audience at the Military Ball. The Military Ball was held on The Commodore this year.

Monique Hill and Carnell Davis get their groove on at the homecoming dance, "One in a Million".

Veronica Munoz and Michelle Walker enter the dance celebrating homecoming pondering where to put their things so they can dance the night away.

Damion Crenshaw and Elita Milles slow dance to the sweet sounds of "Heaven" by NuFlava at the homecoming dance.

Rockin' the ship! People groove to the beat at the Military Ball.

Candi Blaylock is surrounded by friends as she gets jiggy with it at one of the dances this year.

Encinaliens look good while entering the dance ready to "par-tay".

The Odyssey continues: The human race strides into the third millennium with a snap in their step. This year's freshmen class was far and away the largest class at Encinal this year. Krismin Inocentes, student council president, guided this massive crowd, and supervised the production of a hilarious homecoming skit depicting the Miss America finals. Naturally, this skit placed fourth; it's to be expected for freshmen. But imagine what they'll be up to by the time they graduate!

The 1998 Horizon entitled "Jet Files" was made possible by the hard work and creativity of this year's staff members. All 184 pages of this 8½ by 11 inch trim book are credited to the Horizon staff, editors, our yearbook advisor, Ms. Kaesa Aanestad, our Jostens Representative, Ms. Gayle Leksan and Jostens Printing and Publishing in Visalia, California where printing and overall construction for the book was done. The front cover was custom-designed to reflect our theme. The book was completed in a series of five deadlines by March 25, 1998. A total of 500 books were delivered in June 1998.
